

Nashville Tennessee Pediatric Cardiologist Opportunity!
Family Friendly, Sought After Location!

Due to growth, we are seeking a pediatric cardiologist to join our practice in Nashville, Tennessee. The cardiology practice consists of two total physicians, with coverage of one main office location in Nashville Monday-Friday, and one clinic location in Murfreesboro, 1-2 days per week.

- This is a general pediatric cardiology position that will include performing echos, fetal echos and inpatient and outpatient care
- This will complement our other services in Nashville including maternal-fetal medicine, pediatric surgery, neonatology, PICU and a pediatric hospitalist program
- We will look at experienced, BC/BE pediatric cardiologists and newly graduating fellows

Long known as Music City U.S.A., Nashville is a major hub for health care, publishing, banking and transportation and is recognized as one of the best places to live in the U.S. Residents and visitors alike enjoy a vast amount of fun and entertainment year round, including an abundance of parks, waterways and recreational areas and a thriving arts and cultural scene. The city has many major and minor league sports teams, and there are several opportunities for higher education through such institutions as Vanderbilt University and Tennessee State University. The cost of living is low and there is no personal income tax.

The compensation and benefits referenced is for illustrative purposes only, and will be discussed during and after the interview process.

Effective November 1st, 2021 Pediatrix will require all employees and new hires to be vaccinated against COVID-19, unless they qualify for an approved medical and/or religious exemption.
