

Dorner Tail Kits January Promo Terms and Conditions

Promotion includes the following: Drive & Idler Tail Kits [Tail Kit Assembly includes: tail plates (left & right), spindle and bearings (all components that can be used as a drop in replacement)]. Promotion applies towards Tail Kits when purchased as a spare part with a new conveyor or purchased for an existing conveyor for all series of conveyors. Discount only applies to tail kits outlined on the purchase order. Dorner will provide an added 5%, 70% or 75% discount off Dorner List to sales channels above any parts discounts extended to distributors. Dorner will assign the added 5%, 70% or 75% discount based on a channel or customer referencing the promo-code for the January promotion- KT5JAN19. If the code is not referenced, Dorner will not automatically include the added discount. Dorner will extend the added 5%, 70% or 75% discount directly to customers purchasing through a manufacturer's representative if the promo-code is referenced on the order. This promotional discount is to be applied to the tail kits only. All worldwide Dorner customers are eligible for this program. The promotion starts on Tuesday, January 1st and continues through Thursday, January 31st. The added discount will not be applied to any orders received after Thursday, January 31, 2019. This is a promotion. The added discount is not intended to replace current discounts and should not be recognized or suggested as a permanent price structure after 1/31/19. The promotion applies to the products selected during the promotion period. Added discount is not to be applied to other products and cannot be combined with other new conveyor orders, aftermarket parts or belts or any other promotions from Dorner. Any discounts need to be applied directly to the order by a channel or customer. Dorner reserves the right to revise, modify or terminate this promotion at any time without liability of any kind to Dorner or an authorized sales channel. This promotion is neither assignable nor transferable. It is intended for the use of our authorized sales channel and select customers.
