

BLACK HAWK COUNTY COVID-19 COOPERATIVE DISASTER RESPONSE FUND GRANTS

COVID-19 Response Grants Now Available

Nonprofits may now apply for grants from the Black Hawk County COVID-19 Cooperative Disaster Response Fund with the Community Foundation of Northeast Iowa. Nonprofits serving Black Hawk County that are providing basic needs services and/or working with individuals and families who have been disproportionately impacted by the public health and economic consequences of the coronavirus pandemic are encouraged to apply.

Information and the simple online application can be found on CFNEIA's website at cfneia.org/bhccovidgrants. All applications for grants must be submitted through the Foundation's online grant system. Funds will be released on a rolling basis as fundraising continues throughout the COVID-19 disaster, making it possible to move resources quickly and to adapt to evolving needs in subsequent phases of the crisis recovery efforts.

Grant applicants with questions should contact Tom Wickersham, program director at the Community Foundation of Northeast Iowa, at (319) 243-1356 or twickersham@cfneia.org. Grant applicants must be a 501(c)(3) designated organization or government entity serving Black Hawk County in order to be considered for funding.

READ THE GUIDELINES AND APPLY

The Black Hawk County COVID-19 Cooperative Disaster Response Fund was established by CFNEIA, the Otto Schoitz Foundation, Cedar Valley United Way and the Guernsey Foundation. Grants from the disaster response fund will be administered in collaboration with organizations coordinating pandemic response efforts, including Black Hawk County COAD (Community Organizations Active in Disaster).

319-287-9106 | cfneia.org

