Cedar Valley Nonprofit Association Releases Video of Gratitude

The Cedar Valley Nonprofit Association (CVNA) portrays the expressions of gratitude among network of partners <in this video>. On Giving Tuesday, the association brought leaders together for a virtual Toast of Gratitude.

Inspired by William Arthur Ward's quote: "Feeling gratitude and not expressing it, is like wrapping a present and not giving it." Combined with the CVNA's mission of "moving good forward." It was fitting for the Association to put a call out to it's network to capture "the good" happening during COVID-19.

The response from Association partners was overwhelmingly positive towards their staff, board members, community volunteers and business partners in the Cedar Valley.

"We were pleased to have such a nice turn out for both stories of gratitude and attendees," commented CVNA Coordinator Annie Vander Werff. State Representative Dave Williams even stopped by to express his, "gratitude and appreciation for all that the nonprofit leaders are doing in and for our community."

The CVNA is a vibrant network with a mission to energize a collective power in the nonprofit community. To learn more about how we are "moving good forward" in the Cedar Valley, visit <www.cedarvalleynonprofits.org> or email <annie@cedarvalleynonprofits.org>.
