

EURYDICE

by SARAH RUHL

Pulitzer Prize-finalist and renowned playwright Sarah Ruhl reimagines one of the oldest myths in Eurydice, a tale of lost love and irrevocable choices. Turning the Orpheus myth on its head, this new version follows Eurydice on a journey into a Wonderland-esque Underworld, where she comes up against a Greek chorus of talking stones and the Lord of the Underworld himself. When her husband, Orpheus, comes to rescue her, the two must grapple with a reality neither of them could have ever dreamed of.

Eurydice will be performed in Auditorium 2 from January 18 - 19, 2018 before heading to MSHSL Section 6AA One Act Competitions.
