

Gray & Oscar LLC

FR: MICHAEL OSCAR
DT: 12/3/18
RE: Newly Elected PA Congressional Members

---

4th Congressional District (Open)

Madeleine Dean (D)

- Education: La Salle University; Widener University Law School.
- Served as a practicing attorney in the Philadelphia Area, was the Executive Director of the Philadelphia Trial Lawyers, and was an English Professor at La Salle University.
- Elected to the PA House of Representatives for the 153rd District in 2012.
- Per her campaign website biography, Dean is an “outspoken member, championing progressive priorities like public education, protecting the environment, combatting addiction, equal rights, access to health care, ethics, criminal justice reform, and gun violence.”

5th Congressional District (Meehan resigned)

Mary Gay Scanlon (D)

- Education: Colgate University; University of Pennsylvania School of Law.
- Served as a civil rights attorney for over 35 years.
- Currently the national Pro Bono Counsel at Ballard Spahr.

6th Congressional District (Costello retiring)

Chrissy Houlahan (D)

- Education: Stanford University; Massachusetts Institute of Technology
- Captain in the U.S. Air Force Reserves.
- A former chemistry teacher in North Philadelphia
- Founding COO of B-Lab – a nonprofit that promotes B Corporations and good business practices.

7th Congressional District (Dent retiring)

Susan Wild (D)

- Education: American University; the George Washington University Law School
- Solicitor of the City of Allentown
- Partner at Gross McGinley, focusing on Limited Liability Partnerships

9th Congressional District (Barletta retiring)

Dan Meuser (R)

- Education: Cornell University
- Former Pennsylvania Secretary of Revenue under former Governor Tom Corbett (R)
- Co-Owner of Pride Mobility Products, a world leader in designing and manufacturing mobile products including Jazzy Power Chairs, Scooters, and Power Lift Recliners

13th Congressional District (The former Rep. Shuster Seat)

Dr. John Joyce (R)

- Education: Penn State University; Temple University School of Medicine
- Former Chief Resident of the Dermatology Department at Johns Hopkins University Hospital
- Worked with the United States Navy at Portsmouth Naval Hospital in Virginia during Operation Desert Shield and Desert Storm
- Established Altoona Dermatology Associates in Altoona, PA where he works today

14th Congressional District (Murphy resigned)

Guy Reschenthaler (R)

- Education: Penn State University; Duquesne University School of Law
- Former U.S. Navy Judge Advocate and Iraq War veteran
- Elected to the PA State Senate in a 2015 special election for the PA 37th District, which includes portions of Allegheny County and Washington County
- Per his campaign website, Reschenthaler is a “leading conservative voice in Harrisburg fighting for cutting spending, lowering taxes, and eliminating job-killing regulations.”