

The Green Team at the Center for the Women of New York is proud to present our upcoming

Sustainability Webinar

Join CWNY and NYC Parks on Thursday July 30th, 2020 at 11 AM for a meaningful discussion concerning:

1. The significance of sustainability to the feminist movement and climate change as a women's rights issue
2. Sustainable practices which women of New York can incorporate into their own lives
3. Current sustainability efforts in New York City, the U.S., and in the global arena
