

REALTOR® Code of Ethics Training Membership Requirement

What is the Triennial Ethics Requirement

Cycle 8: January 1, 2025 – December 31, 2027

The National Association of REALTORS® requires that all members complete 2.5 hours of ethics training that cover specific topics during each three-year cycle (triennial). The current Cycle 8 ends December 31, 2027. Training is enforced and tracked by the local REALTOR association - Mid Jersey Association of REALTORS.

Scan the QR CODE to access the
REALTOR® Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice

REALTORS® agree to abide by the REALTOR Code of Ethics when becoming a member

What Do You Need to Do?

If you've completed the training, email the certificate of completion to Membership@MidJerseyAOR.com prior to December 31, 2027.

Cycle 8: Existing and New Code of Ethics Training

The NAR FREE course will count towards the requirement that all REALTORS® complete a Code of Ethics training course within Cycle 8, may be accessed by scanning the QR code on the right

More Courses

To view a list of courses that MJAR accepts as fulfilling the NAR requirement, scan the QR code to the left

The REALTOR® Code of Ethics requirements focuses on training members on the REALTOR® Code of Ethics, while the NJ continuing education requirement focuses on general real estate ethics. The REALTOR® Code of Ethics requirement is necessary to renew membership with the Association, while the New Jersey Real Estate Commission continuing education requirement is necessary to renew a real estate license at the end of the licensing term.

What if You Miss the Deadline of December 31, 2027?

- Beginning on January 1, 2028, MJAR will suspend memberships for members who have not completed the NAR Code of Ethics training for Cycle 8.
- Suspended members must still adhere to the Code of Ethics and pay REALTOR® dues to renew membership.
- Access to essential services such as Supra, REALTORS® Property Resource® (RPR), and certain MLSs will be impacted.
- Suspended members have until February 28, 2028, to complete the training to avoid termination of membership.
- On March 1, 2028, any member who has not fulfilled the training requirement will have their membership terminated.
- To reinstate membership, agents must provide proof of completed Code of Ethics training and may be assessed a reinstatement fee.

If you have questions, contact MJAR Membership Manager Peggy Whiteside at (732) 442-3400 ext. 102 or email Membership@MidJerseyAOR.com

Updated April 14, 2025