

Katherine Haley
Candidate, AZ State Treasurer

Katherine Haley is a business owner, public servant, and board leader with more than two decades of experience in public policy, governance, and financial stewardship.

As Founder of Oak Rose Group and President of the Arizona State Board of Education, she oversees budgets, advises on major investments, and leads institutions with accountability and integrity.

Katherine is running for Arizona State Treasurer because she believes taxpayer dollars should be managed with care, discipline, and long-term responsibility. She is committed to protecting Arizona's financial future through prudent oversight and ethical leadership.
