Pinnacle High School Club America and I had the privilege of meeting Erika Kirk at Turning Point Headquarters. Nothing could have prepared me for the bittersweet moment that I would share with her. After her amazing speech, I asked her what piece of advice Charlie gave that she would never forget. She looked at me with tears in her eyes and a soft smile and said "Know Nature". For a moment, I didn't know what she meant. When she started explaining, I realized that she meant know the community, the people around you. No matter who they are, their beliefs, motivations, or politics, knowing them brings something to your life. We then ended our interaction with a long, emotional hug. ~ Claire Theodore, Scottsdale Vice Chair & Pinnacle HS TPUSA President

Another Teen that Attended the Event Said: Following Charlie Kirk's passing, I noticed a question remained. Who will lead his movement? We are blessed that his courageous wife, Erika Kirk, has taken the lead at TPUSA, ensuring the movement doesn't die. I was honored to be invited to Turning Point HQ a few weeks ago to meet with Erika, and the moment is one I will always cherish. ~ Ocean Rasso

David C.

Scottsdale Chair & State Vice Chair

Hello, my name is David Cadena and I am the Vice Chair of the Arizona Teenage Republicans and the Chair of its Scottsdale Chapter. I joined the organization a few months ago, after stumbling upon the organization's advisor and deciding to join. Within the course of a couple of months, I co-founded and led the Scottsdale Chapter, before being elected as State Vice Chair. Throughout my experience here in TARS, I have been incredibly humbled by the political and social experiences I have encountered only through the course of a few months. I have met friends with similar political aspirations, have increased my understanding of the political environment, and have seen the importance of being sober minded in such an emotionally volatile culture. I want to see the next generation filled with grace, self-control, and discernment, being founded in Conservative values to resist the deceptions of today's cultural narratives
