Volunteer Opportunities

The success of Palo Verde Republican Women depends on our members! There are opportunities to volunteer with our board members who lead our committees, activities and events throughout the year.

Please share with us how you would like to get involved by checking those areas of interest below.

___ Americanism: Promote patriotism through recognition and communication of our country's important events and achievements.

___ Arrangements: Plan and coordinate monthly club meetings and special events(location, meals, decorations, registration, 'greeters', and more).

___ Boutique: Source, promote and sell patriotic merchandise to support PVRW activities and events.

___ Communications/Website: Inform and engage members while promoting PVRW to external entities through newsletters, emails/texts and the club's website.

___ Community Service: Actively support community programs through the engagement and generosity of our membership. We hold charity drives for causes important to our members.

___ Education/Literacy/Scholarship: Plan actions, programs and activities that foster patriotic and conservative values for students in local school districts and ASU's Center for American Institutions.

___ Learn and Lunch: Plan monthly spirited discussions and speakers to increase awareness related to current political issues and public concerns.

___ Membership: Assist with new member registration at monthly luncheons and other events.

___ Politics/Legislation/Campaigns: Conduct research and educate members about current political issues legislation and candidates to promote Republican values and strategies.

___ Red Shoe Book Club: Read, review and conduct monthly lively discussions about books that shed light on our current political situation.

___ Ways and Means: Plan fundraising events and activities to resource the charitable endeavors of PVRW.
