

Rep. David Marshall Sr. Candidate, Corporation Commissioner

David Marshall Sr. is a U.S. Air Force veteran, retired police officer, pastor, and conservative state legislator who has spent his life serving others with courage and conviction. After decades in law enforcement and ministry, he was elected to the Arizona House of Representatives to fight for faith, family, and freedom — and now he's running for the Corporation Commission to stop utility rate hikes, defend rural Arizona, and restore public trust.

David was elected to the Arizona House of Representatives in 2022 and reelected in 2024, representing the rural, hardworking values of Legislative District 7. At the Capitol, he has been a steadfast defender of the U.S. Constitution, individual liberty, school choice, election integrity, border security, law enforcement, the unborn and parental rights. Now, he's bringing that same resolve to the Arizona Corporation Commission.

As a Corporation Commissioner, David will:

- Fight utility rate hikes that hurt Arizona families and small businesses
- Oppose radical ESG mandates and left-wing energy policies
- Protect rural communities from regulatory overreach
- Support energy independence through reliable, all-of-the-above solutions
- Demand transparency and root out cronyism in utility regulation

David Marshall Sr. is not a career politician — he's a servant-leader, tested and trusted, ready to defend Arizona from the inside out.
