

Rodney Glassman Candidate, AZ Attorney General

Rodney Glassman is married to his law school sweetheart, Sasha, and the father of two teenage daughters, Rose and Ruth. Professionally, Rodney has been a practicing litigation attorney for almost two decades and serves as a Lieutenant Colonel in the United States Air Force JAG Corps Reserve, currently assigned to the 56th Fighter Wing Legal Office at Luke Air Force Base.

He is running for Attorney General to protect Arizona's law enforcement, Arizona's kids, and Arizona's prosperity and elections while working with President Trump to secure our Southern Border.

On day one, Rodney is committed to withdrawing Arizona from the 35+ click-bait lawsuits that have been filed by Arizona's liberal Attorney General Kris Mayes to stop the Trump administration and rescinding her political indictments against Arizona Republicans that were pursued simply because they supported President Trump.

Rodney's campaign for Attorney General is co-chaired by Maricopa County Sheriff Jerry Sheridan, Arizona's highest-ranking Republican, Superintendent Tom Horne, and former State Senate President Karen Fann. He's the only pro-family, Trump-Republican, practicing attorney in the race with a track record to match.
