

Honors Study Abroad

March Break in Venice

Join Dr. Emily Allen and Dr. Dino Felluga for a 2-credit HONR course in Venice, Italy!
Call out: Sept 20 at 6:30 pm in HCRN 1143

“Inventing Venice” will take students to Venice and Padua, Italy for March Break 2017 and will have as its textbook the Venetian empire itself, especially the world-changing transition from the Medieval period to the Renaissance that this region drove.

There will be an accompanying 2-credit, 8-week interdisciplinary HONR course over Jan and Feb 2017, titled Making the Human, which will center on Venice. One can choose to do one or the other or, ideally, both.

INVENTING VENICE

Spring 2017 — Itinerary

Sir Peter Blake,
The Butterfly Man in Venice—Homage to Damien Hirst, 2011
CCA Galleries,
Tilford, Surrey, UK

HONR 299: Itinerary Inventing Venice (and Ourselves)

Profs. Dino Franco Felluga (felluga@purdue.edu) and Emily Allen (elallen@purdue.edu)

Day 1—Sat, March 11

Arrival at San Servolo by noon
Walking tour of Venice
Dinner together at Al Sottoportego

Day 2—Sun, March 12

10:30 Tour of Doge's Palace
12:00 Lunch
1:00-4:00 Venice in the Details
& Clock Tower Tour
4:00— Dinner & Evening on your own

Day 3—Mon, March 13

8:00 Lecture on architecture
10:00-2:00 Architecture Walking Tour, with Emily Allen: Piazza S Marco, S Giorgio
Maggiore, S Maria Formosa, S Maria dei
Miracoli, S Zanipolo (includes lunch)
2:00-4:00 Campo Assignment
4:00— Dinner & Evening on your own

Day 4—Tues, March 14

8:00 Lecture on Art History
10:00 Tour of Accademia
1:00 Lunch

2:00 S. Maria Gloriosa dei Frari
4:00—8:00 PM & dinner on your own
8:30 Concert at S Vidal Church

Day 5—Wed, March 15

9:00 Tintoretto Tour with Gregory
Dowling
12:00 Lunch
1:00-2:00 Scuola Grande di S Rocco
2:00-4:00 Thick Description Assignment
4:00— Dinner & Evening on your own

Day 6—Thurs, March 16

Day trip to Padova, including visit to Scrovegni Chapel, the Cathedral and Baptistry, the Basilica and Oratorio

Day 7—Fri, March 17

8:00 Lecture on Modern Art
10:30 Tour of the Guggenheim
12:00— Afternoon on your own
6:00 Dinner together

Day 8—Sat, March 18

Departure from Venice