

daybreak

Devotionals

Come join us for an inspirational hour, where we will hear from God's Word and sing unto the Lord in hymns and psalms. We will pray for one another and fellowship together. At the end, there will be a brief time of Q/A.

May Theme is Starting Over

Renee Rowell, Daybreak Devotionals leader, and Daybreak staff look forward to seeing you Tuesday afternoons from 12:30-1:30 at Daybreak LifeCare Center located at 1601 St. Julian Place in Columbia. To find out more information, please call 803-771-6634.

RENEE ROWELL lives in Elgin, SC with her husband, David. They attend Awaken Church in Columbia, SC where they served on the worship team, as well as David having served as an elder for one term. Renee has been in ministry since the age of 18 and has served in various capacities as a worship team member, children's ministry director, and women's ministry. Renee has served on the Awaken Women's Ministry Leadership Team for four years, and has been leading the team since December 2022. Her heart and her passion is to help women discover their identity in Jesus and find fulfillment in an ongoing, meaningful relationship with Him through which they can discover their purpose in Him and boldly take their place in the Body of Christ and impact the world around them.