Please join us for Daybreak LifeCare Center's annual banquet on Thursday, May 16, at the beautiful Pastides Alumni Center of the University of South Carolina. It will be an evening filled with touching client testimonials, celebration of Daybreak's 40+ years of service to Columbia, culminating with a keynote address featuring Dr. Albert Mohler Jr.

In addition to the keynote address, Dr. Mohler will entertain questions from attendees and host a book signing after the close of the evening.

Southern Way Catering will provide a delicious dinner. Tables of 10 and 8 seats will be available for purchase by churches, businesses or groups of friends to enjoy the evening together.

We are excited to offer an inspiring event with a renowned speaker, and to share more with you about how you can partner with Daybreak to support the women and men of the Midlands who are experiencing unexpected pregnancies.
