

When Abortion Is Forced

Every preborn child is a precious gift from God, and every mother deserves to be treated with dignity, compassion, and respect. Yet the heartbreaking reality is that some women are pressured, manipulated, or even forced into ending the life of their preborn child through coercion and abuse.

REPRODUCTIVE COERCION MAY INCLUDE:

- Threats of abandonment, violence, or financial hardship if she chooses life.
- Emotional manipulation or relentless pressure to have an abortion.
- Secretly administering abortion-inducing drugs without her knowledge or consent.
- Obtaining abortion pills online to facilitate a coerced abortion outside of medical oversight.

IF YOU OR SOMEONE YOU KNOW IS EXPERIENCING THIS ABUSE:

Call 911
immediately

if there is immediate danger or if abortion-inducing drugs may have been given without consent.

Contact the National Domestic Violence Hotline

800-799-SAFE (7233)
or text START to 88788
for confidential assistance.

At Daybreak, we believe no woman should ever be pressured into abortion and that every mother deserves love, support, and the opportunity to choose life. Through compassionate care, we offer hope, practical help, and the love of Jesus Christ.
