

Mike Bordwine

Male Mentor

Mike Bordwine was born and grew up in Abingdon, Virginia, the eldest of three children. He was educated at the Virginia Military Institute, where he played soccer, and later served six years in the U.S. Army Reserve. Following a career in sales and business management, he now enjoys a retired life.

He and his wife, Cindy Holladay Bordwine, have been married for 51 years and have been blessed with four children and ten grandchildren.

Mike enjoys sports, traveling, gardening (growing up on a farm where it was in his blood early), reading and serving others. One of his greatest delights is spending time enjoying his family, particularly all of the grandchildren. He and Cindy are members of Christ Covenant Church in Columbia, where he serves as an elder and children's Sunday School teacher.

Mike's desire to serve the Lord, coupled with his belief in the sanctity of human life, as well as God's grace in superintending varied circumstances, led him to volunteer as a Male Mentor at Daybreak LifeCare Center.

Mike states, "I am always humbled when I reflect on how dumb and blind I was as a young man and how, by God's grace, He provided older, seasoned Christian men to instruct me on how to live a life that honors the Lord. Having that blessed life experience has instilled in me a desire to disciple men in the biblical way of living. As the Apostle Paul exhorts in 2 Timothy 2:2 ...what you have heard from me...entrust to faithful men who will be able to teach others also." Mike continues, "Living in a present culture that desires to destroy the biblical design for marriage and families, it is imperative that we stand in the gap wherever possible to defend and promote God's perfect plan."

Mike's desire is to enlist like-minded men who will join the team at Daybreak so that no opportunity is missed to meet with the men who visit with the mothers that are seeking assistance.

If interested in applying to be a Daybreak Male Mentor, fill out the Volunteer Application located at: <https://friendsofdaybreak.org/volunteer-opportunities/volunteer-application/>