BRITTANY KRUGER

Mulvane Chamber of Commerce

8-5: Executive Director

Biography: Brittany Kruger works to connect local businesses, strengthen community partnerships, and promote Mulvane as a welcoming destination and a wonderful place to live. With a background in journalism and a career dedicated to supporting meaningful missions, Brittany brings a storyteller's perspective and a passion for helping others succeed.

She's also part of the South Central Kansas Tourism Region, collaborating with communities across the area to inspire visitors to discover the charm, creativity, and connection found throughout Kansas.

What do you like best about Kansas Tourism? "I love the people—the dreamers, makers, and doers who pour their hearts into creating something special in their communities. Every small business, event, and attraction has a story, and I love getting to share those stories and watch how their dreams take root and grow right here in Kansas."
