WORKSHOP DESCRIPTIONS

Test Prep & Strategies

Don't let a mid terms or finals sneak up on you. Now is the time to begin organizing and preparing for your tests. This workshop will give you strategies to prepare for your exams.

"I Can Do This!" - Confidence Workshop

Confidence is an attitude in understanding yourself. What is your strength? What is something you need to improve on? What do you like? Dislike? Learn tips and tricks to build your self-confidence one step at a time. You can do this!

Tips For Time Management

Never have enough time for studying? This workshop will show you how you can balance work, college, and family obligations with strategies for scheduling and goal setting.

Ways to Be an Awesome Online Learner

Learning online is a different way of learning. There is no doubt this means learners will need to adjust time management, homework, note taking styles, and many other skills to be an effective online learner. Your instructors completed extensive online training to teach online, and they became online learners themselves. You are not alone. This workshop will provide skills and tips to begin your online learning journey.

Financial Tips for Housing

Let's talk about things to consider when picking where you will be living and how to make sure you can afford it.

How to Google Calendar Effectively

Are you having trouble managing your time or organizing your life into a calendar? In this workshop, you will learn the basics of Google calendar and how to prepare a calendar that includes class times, studying blocks, extracurricular activities, and personal time.

WORKSHOP DESCRIPTIONS

Pirate Self Care

The Success Matters Team has some tips to share about how to incorporate self-care into your semester.

Designing the Future of Work

The workplace and classroom of tomorrow are uncertain places. We live in a rapidly changing world where innovations like artificial intelligence, automation, big data, and immersive media are transforming how we live, work, and learn. During this workshop, participants will learn more about some of the technology and trends shaping the future, what skills and mindsets will be needed for the future, and thoughts leaders and trailblazers have around these topics. Come learn how to disrupt and design your own future!

Discover Your Personal Learning Style

How Do You Process Information You Are Expected to Learn? By Seeing it? By Hearing It? Another Way? Identify Your Own Learning Style to Use More Effective Studying Techniques

How To Build Inclusive Communities

Want to be a leader who makes ALL of your crewmates feel included? Through this workshop, you will be introduced to key terms on diversity, equity, and inclusion, start the process of self-reflecting on your own identities, and take away some key practices on how to make your crewmates feel heard and seen. Inclusivity is an on-going practice, and we encourage you to attend this workshop as an introduction on how you can start your journey!

Responsible Financial Borrowing

Let's talk about things to consider when deciding to borrow.

Red Light, Yellow Light, Green Light

Let's talk about the habits of the semester - what needs to stop, what needs work, and what's working well and contributing to your progress. This workshop will be interactive and insightful!
