CORPORATE BABY HALLOWEEN COSTUME CONTEST

Enter our Hopeloween 2022 Boo Baby Costume Contest and compete against other local companies to secure the most votes for the cutest “Boo Baby” representing your company. Not only will this be a fun way for your employees to get involved with our local community, you will be helping us raise funds for the families staying with us while they are caring for their hospitalized child.

The contest is simple; select a baby whose parent or guardian works for your company, or hold an internal company contest to determine the baby that will represent your organization. Dress the sweet little Boo Baby up in their cutest and most creative Halloween costume. Take a picture and send to us to be uploaded onto our Voting platform. Get your employees, friends, EVERYONE in your network to vote for your Company Boo Baby. It only costs $1 to vote, but you will want to encourage your network to vote frequently and to share with their network so your company can claim the honor of representing the CUTEST BOO BABY in the area! The winning Boo Baby will win a mini photo shoot and will be showcased on our website, social media and featured on a billboard over the holidays. See Contest Rules for more details.

Mad Anthony's Children's Hope House is dedicated to providing families with children in any community hospital with overnight accommodations in a family-centered, home-like, supportive environment. With Houses on the Lutheran, Dupont and St. Joseph Hospital campuses, we are able to keep families close to their hospitalized loved one.
