

Bird Watching Trail Walk

Oak Hills Park, Norwalk
SAT., MAY 15, 2021 • 8:00 A.M.

Social distancing will be observed and masks are required.

Join us for a quiet nature walk with local bird guide Chris Bosak.
 Learn to spot resident and migrating birds in our community's woodlands.
 Celebrate the 103rd Anniversary of the signing of the Migratory Bird Treaty Act.

Chris Bosak has written his For the Birds column for various New England newspapers for 20 years, and his nature photographs and writings have appeared in publications throughout the region. Visit www.birdsofnewengland.com.

*Catch Chris Bosak: Guest presenter at Norwalk Library's Zoom webinar on May 13.

This free guided bird walk, sponsored by the Oak Hills Park Nature Advisory Committee, begins at 8 A.M. Meet at the trail head near the parking area outside of the clubhouse/restaurant.

In case of rain/bad weather, the walk will be held on Sun., May 16, 8:00 A.M.

Register at audreyyogini@gmail.com

Bring your field glasses or binoculars!

Wear hiking shoes or boots with good traction as the trail is winding and steep in places. Be ready to see our community's natural beauty!

Oak Hills Park, 165 Fillow Street, Norwalk, CT 06850
www.oakhillsgc.com/rest/special-nature-events