

New Year, New Books, New Opportunities

CAUCC has two Spiritual Formation Groups that meet weekly. The members of the groups have covenanted to be present for one another (and let each other know when they cannot make it), to share honest questions and experiences, to hold in confidence what other people share, and to pray for and with one another. Both groups move through various Biblical books as the centering place for conversation.

Both groups have new books we are starting this New Year! And this is a good time to try one of them out (although you are welcome to try out the groups any time).

The Thursday evening group, the Gospel of Mark: They meet via Zoom on Thursdays 6:30 to 7:30 pm, except on the second Thursday when our spiritual formation opportunity takes the form of Taizé worship in the sanctuary. This book, believed to be the first of our four Gospels written, helps us explore the life and ministry of Jesus and ponder what that means for us here and now.
