

Program on Human Rights and the Global Economy (PHRGE)

IMMIGRATION INTERNSHIPS

For Students Taking Courses
SUMMER TERM 2021

APPLY NOW

APPLICATIONS ACCEPTED UNTIL POSITION IS FILLED

- The Program on Human Rights and the Global Economy collaborates with immigration advocates and researchers from Northeastern University to promote immigrants' rights. Our partners include the Massachusetts ACLU and the Massachusetts Immigrant and Refugee Advocacy Coalition (MIRA).
- The summer 2021 internships will begin as remote internships.
- We hope to hire multiple interns for the summer of 2021. Projects include:
  - The Police Policies Project. Help us gather and analyze Massachusetts police-department policies on federal immigration enforcement!
  - Report on Massachusetts Immigration Policies. Help us produce an advocacy-oriented report on recent Massachusetts efforts to protect immigrants from deportation!
  - Partnership for Immigrants' Rights. Support an interdisciplinary group of immigration advocates and Northeastern professors who work collaboratively on promoting immigrants' rights!
- These internships are available to upper-level students who are taking classes during the summer term. Interns generally work 8 hours per week on a flexible schedule. (Additional hours are available but not required.) Compensation is available only for work-study-eligible students.
- For more information, please contact Elizabeth Ennen, Director of PHRGE, at e.ennen@northeastern.edu.
- To apply, please send a single PDF containing your resume, "short transcript," and co-op evaluations (optional) to Elizabeth Ennen at e.ennen@northeastern.edu. The hiring timetable for PHRGE's immigration internships varies considerably from term to term. Please submit your application at your earliest convenience to ensure its consideration. Thank you!