Press Release

Nothing Bundt Cakes Opens in Santa Rosa!

Santa Rosa is about to get a little sweeter when Nothing Bundt Cakes opens its bakery doors on Monday, June 14. Nothing Bundt Cakes is located at 266 Coddingtown Center with bakery hours of 9am to 6pm Monday-Saturday and Sundays 10am to 4pm.

Nothing Bundt Cakes bakes ten delicious flavors and offers four different sizes, each crowned with signature cream cheese frosting. Cakes are available in 8" and 10" sizes, along with individually wrapped Bundtlets and bite-size Bundtinis. The bakery also features a retail lobby offering specialty gifts like decorative plates, cake stands, tea towels, drink ware, seasonal and holiday themed items.

The Santa Rosa location is owned and operated by the mother-daughter team of Waverly Newton-Kenny and Jan Newton. The Newtons also own Nothing Bundt Cakes in Corte Madera as well as bakeries in Gilbert and Queen Creek, Arizona. Newton-Kenny says she is excited to introduce their unique and delicious cakes to the Sonoma County area and will move to Santa Rosa with her husband in order to be an active cake ambassador in the community. "We are a family-owned business and have a passion for being dedicated and loyal community partners," said Newton. "The Nothing Bundt Cakes motto is "Be the Joy" and that's exactly what we plan to do in Sonoma," said Newton-Kenny.

Nothing Bundt Cakes offers curbside as well as delivery service to homes and businesses. The bakery email is santarosa@nothingbundtcakes.com and orders may also be placed online at www.nothingbundtcakes.com.
