Earn a High School Diploma, Free with Your Library Card

Have you ever wanted to go back to school? Start off the new year with a new goal! Through Career Online High School's online, accredited program, adults can earn a high school diploma and a career certificate, free with a Sonoma County Library card.

Finish high school and receive job training in an online environment that's available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, through your local library.

Jeaninne R recently graduated from the Career Online High School program offered by Sonoma County Library.

"When I finished my last final, I was overcome with relief and excitement. I cried! I just feel so accomplished now that I have my diploma," Jeaninne said.

"I love this program, and I'm grateful that the Sonoma County Library is part of it," said Interim Sonoma County Library Director Erika Thibault. "Career Online High School provides enrolled students with the flexibility and coaching they need to complete their high school diplomas and create a better future for themselves and their families."

Limited scholarships are available to eligible applicants who are looking to advance their careers, prepare for workforce entry or continue their education. It's never too late to graduate—learn more and apply today at sonomalibrary.org/careeronlinehighschool.

No library card? No problem! Come into any branch to get your free library card or create a library eCard online at www.sonomalibrary.org/get-a-library-card.
