

Fundemonium is your FUN and SAFE Joy Store!

Sorry Halloween, Christmas is coming!

My birthday is Halloween so I have always been sensitive to Christmas decorations going up too early.

Jack Skellington is my hero.

This year is different though and it is difficult to say what Christmas shopping will be like. We are working through shortages, delayed products, and other products that have just disappeared. Even the company that made the Toy Hall of Fame Slinky has gone out of business. (They sold Slinky to another company so we hope to see it back.)

Don't wait too long. We are stocking up the best we can. We also have:

- Christmas gel pens and erasers for stocking stuffers
- Christmas trains and freight cars from Lionel
- Christmas Advent Calendars from LEGO
- Christmas paper for free gift wrapping
- And of course the Fundemonium Gift Registry to make sure you get the Perfect Present

Prepare for the Holidays early this year.
