California employers with five or more employees are required by law to provide two hours of sexual harassment prevention training to all supervisors and one hour of such training to nonsupervisory employees by January 1, 2021.

Online harassment prevention training through CalChamber makes it convenient to effectively train employees and fulfill your compliance obligations. Our courses meet California's legal requirements and include best practices that raise awareness about the subtleties of harassment, improve workplace culture and respect, and increase productivity and a sense of well being.
