

Dear Friend of Habitat for Humanity of Sonoma County,

Thank you to those of you who have called or emailed us about MacKenzie Scott's recent $436 million dollar donation to Habitat for Humanity. While Habitat of Sonoma County is not among the lucky affiliates selected to receive funds from this generous donation, we enthusiastically celebrate this gift as it helps further Habitat's mission of building homes, community, and hope. I'm proud of all who were fortunate enough to benefit from this gift, and also very proud of us, Habitat of Sonoma County. We share this not to take away from the amazing generosity of MacKenzie Scott, but to let you know we continue to need your support as much as possible to help spread the word of Sonoma County's critical need for affordable housing.

Over the next two years, Habitat Sonoma County plans to build homes in the beautiful City of Sebastopol. Your support, as always, remains appreciated.

Gratefully,
