

Welcome Back!

We're so happy to be back for a new semester and to see some masked faces– in person! We can't wait to jump back into creating art together.

Auditions

If you're are someone who is interested in participating in theatre or dance this semester, please read the information below!

Join Theatre Arts & Dance's Fall Acting Show

365 Days/365 Plays by Suzan-Lori Parks

What's the project?

Parks wrote a play a day for one year, and we'll be presenting 20-25 of them!

How to get involved?

Come to our Tuesday, August 31 read through. 6-8pm, Ives 119. Just bring your amazing self. All scripts will be provided. Email me if you're interested but not available on Aug 31.

What will happen at the read through?

We'll read through some of the plays and talk about them. No prior experience is necessary. If you want to be cast you'll let me know that night. Everyone who's interested will get a role!

What's the schedule?

We'll rehearse M-TH, 6-9:30pm. Not every actor will be called to every rehearsal, but very few conflicts can be accomodated. The show will be recorded in late October, and be presented in early November.

Will the show be in person?

We'll rehearse in person (YAY!), and the show will be recorded for an online audience. No live performances.

What happens after the Aug 31 read through?

I'll cast the shows, and we'll have our first rehearsal on Tuesday Sept 7 at 6pm. Most actors will have multiple roles. I'll take into consideration actor preference and experience.
