

First Wednesday Men's Lunch

NOVEMBER 6 AT NOON

Speaker: Hutson Dodds

St. Philip's Church Parish House
corner of Church & Cumberland

Born and raised in Charleston, Hutson Dodds attended St. Michael's before being confirmed in the French Huguenot Church while he was in high school. He was a student at Porter-Gaud from second grade until he graduated in 2006.

Hutson went on to play baseball for the nationally ranked College of Charleston and was team captain his senior year. There he also met his future wife, Chandler. After college, they worked for Campus Outreach, a ministry at the College of Charleston. As part of that ministry, Hutson led 12 college students on a three-month mission trip to Dehradun, India, where they learned Hindi, traveled, and shared the Gospel with college students.

Hutson returned to Porter-Gaud in 2011 to serve as Middle School chaplain. After seven years leading weekly Bible studies and discipleship groups, teaching Old Testament to 8th graders and New Testament to 11th graders, and teaching a C.S. Lewis character course designed by Leeds University in England, Hutson is now in his second year serving as Director of Alumni Relations. He has also coached Middle School baseball, Bantam football, J.V. football, and boys varsity golf, and he formed the varsity girls golf team. During his time at Porter-Gaud, he also received his Master of Arts in Educational Leadership and Administration from George Washington University.

Hutson and Chandler, who is now the director of O'Quinn School in Mt. Pleasant, have been married nine years. They have two children, six-year-old Hutson, Jr., and four-year-old Georgiana. Hutson loves to play golf, travel, and read, and as a family, the Dodds love to be outside in nature, whether that's on the boat, at the beach, hiking in the mountains, or exploring new cities. They are members of East Cooper Baptist Church in Mt. Pleasant.
