

EMPOWERING OPTOMETRY STUDENTS: The OPTOGLOBE Way.

A Collective Vision for Global Collaboration

OPTOGLOBE, a pioneering global community of optometry students transcends borders to create a platform where knowledge, mentorship and connections flourish. Founded by Pemije Gadimoh, a Nigerian optometry student, OPTOGLOBE prioritizes empowering optometry students worldwide, bridging the gap between students and seasoned practitioners thereby setting a new standard for optometry students' engagement.

HOW IS THIS GLOBAL OPTOMETRY STUDENTS' COMMUNITY RUN?

OPTOGLOBE is led by a dedicated Board of Directors comprising 15 optometry students from diverse regions:

- Pemije Gadimoh (Nigeria) – Founder
- Rachel Harmon (USA) – Director of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion
- Moses Adetoro (Nigeria) – Director of Administration
- Amogelang Diseko (South Africa) – Director of Partnerships and Collaboration
- Ruman Yousaf (Pakistan) – Director of Innovations
- Iqra Salam (Pakistan, Bahrain) – Director of Digital Strategy
- Adetona Adeboye (Nigeria) – Director of Advocacy and Public Engagement
- Luke Quadros (Australia) – Director of Student Communications for Australia
- Donkoh Mark (Ghana) – Director of Student Communications for Africa
- Dania Alomran (Jordan) – Director of Student Communications for the Middle East
- Kinza Zeb (Pakistan) – Director of Student Communications for Asia

- Anna Krawiec (USA) – Director of Student Communications for North America
