DIOCESE

PARISH TO PARISH WEEKLY

A weekly publication of the Diocese of Pennsylvania's Communication Network. These brief "classifieds" are intended to keep the members of the Diocese abreast of programs and activities in our parishes, share position openings throughout the Diocese, and to let others know if we have excess good/items they might be able to use. As in many "Classified Ads", articles should not exceed 150 words in length (total, and no graphics) and may be submitted to J.D. Lafrance (jlafrance@diopa.org) no later than Wednesday 10 a.m. each week for distribution via e-mail to the Diocese later that day. This document may be copied for distribution as desired.

ONE-TIME EVENTS

PROGRAMS

"Our Closet" clothing ministry provides clothing and accessories to men, women and children between 10 a.m. and 12 Noon on the dates listed below. Distribution takes place in the Philadelphia Episcopal Cathedral, Wednesday, October 19,

The Diocesan History Committee is planning an event, Signs of the Times: Discovering the Present in What Remains of the Past at St. Luke's Church, Germantown on October 22nd from 9:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. It will be the first of what we hope will be an annual event at a historic parish in the Diocese. St. Luke's Church, Germantown dates to 1811 when Germantown was actually outside Philadelphia. It has produced three bishops (e.g. Barbara Harris) and helped support many sister congregations such as the House of Prayer in West Oak Lane and St. Albans in Olney. In 1968, St. Luke's merged with St. Barnabas, one of the historically black churches in the diocese. Today it faces many of the same challenges as other urban churches in the diocese. Among the speakers will be Mark Lloyd, the chief archivist at Penn and the Rt. Rev. Frank Griswold. Register online: <https://diopa.wufoo.com/forms/history-symposium-october-22-2016/>.

Spiritual Cinema & Discussion on Friday, October 28th at 7 p.m. in St. Luke's Parish Hall, 1946 Welsh Road, Philadelphia PA. The featured presentation is The Overture. "An exhilarating journey that begins at the turn of the century in Thailand, this magnificent film fills us with the magic of music, culture and tradition." A 10-minute short film, entitled, "Does God Play Football?" will precede the featured film. Free organic popcorn and iced. A good will offering is appreciated. Contact number: (215) 969-3645.

Listening Lessons: Listening to Poetry with the Heart on Wednesday, November 16th from 7:30 to 9 p.m., spiritual Director Susan Cole will invite us to listen for God's spirit as we listen together to poetry. We'll spend time listening deeply to a poem (or several), and as we do, we'll pay attention to God's invitation coming through a word or phrase of the poem. This is the ancient practice of Lectio Divina (divine listening) applied to poetry. Listening Lessons is Wellspring at St. Martin's new series on ways to open ourselves ever deeper to the voice and presence of the divine in our lives. For more information or to register, visit www.StMartinEC.org and follow the Wellspring link or call 215-247-7466.

Young people from Holy Spirit, Harleysville, who as members of the Journey to Adulthood class undertook a pilgrimage to England this past summer, will be sharing the highlights of their trip at the 9 a.m. Adult Forum Class. They will also lead the 8 a.m. and 10:15 a.m. services using the forms, prayers and traditions of Canterbury Cathedral. They will reflect on their experiences and encourage all to be lifelong pilgrims. On the following two weeks at the Adult Forum on October 23 and 30, there will be an introduction to the upcoming choir and community pilgrimage in the summer of 2018 to the Lincoln Cathedral and surrounding area in England. For more info, call 215-234-8020.

Cathedral Book Study - Jesus

for President: Politics for Ordinary Radicals by Shane Claiborne and Chris Haw on Sunday, October 23, 2016 from 11:45 a.m. – 1 p.m. in the Liem Azar Cathedral Center at the Philadelphia Episcopal Cathedral.

No matter how badly members of each political party may try to claim him in this election cycle, Jesus was neither a Republican nor a Democrat. Jesus for President combines biblical teaching, church history, and prophetic voice to raise questions about our lives and choices as followers of Jesus today. Join us for two Sundays of lively, thoughtful discussion. We will be joined by a member of the Simple Way Community, founded by Shane Claiborne. For more information, visit www.philadelphiacathedral.org or call (215) 386-0234, ext 13.

Sunday Faith Forum on October 23 in MacColl Auditorium at St. Thomas' Church, Whitemarsh from 11:15 a.m. – 12:15 p.m. – A Troubling Exodus: The Future of Christian Communities in the Middle East - New York Times best-selling author and journalist Eliza Griswold discusses the imperiled future for the ancient Christian communities of the Middle East. Just back from her travels to the Gaza Strip, Ms. Griswold will speak about the genocide of Christians in the Middle East and the plight of Palestinians in the Holy Land. Ms. Griswold, daughter of former Presiding Bishop Frank Griswold, is the author of The Tenth Parallel: Dispatches from the Fault Line between Christianity and Islam.

One Book ~ One Community: Being Mortal, by Atul Gawande. Philadelphia Theological Institute and the Spirituality Center at Daylesford Abbey are jointly hosting a 'One Book' discussion of the thorny theological and practical issues where faith and medical science collide. Join us on Monday, October 24, at lunch or in the evening (6-8 p.m.) for a robust discussion led by Dr. Frances Rhodes. For more information and to register: <https://www.facebook.com/events/358692411140370/>.

October 30 – Sunday Faith Forum at St. Thomas' Church, Whitemarsh at 11:15 a.m. in MacColl Auditorium - Reducing Gun Violence in America: Is It Possible? The Rev. Marek Zabriskie will interview Shira Goodman, the Executive Director of CeaseFirePa, the statewide gun violence organization working with community partners and individuals to reduce gun violence and gun tragedies. We explore how to stop the flow of illegal guns into our communities and how to keep guns out of the hands of those who should not have them. Ms. Goodman will focus on what we as individuals and faith communities can do to reduce gun violence, promote stronger gun laws and keep our communities safer.

St. Alban's (3625 Chapel Rd, Newtown Square) with Main Line Heath is offering a Free Parenting Forum on November 9 @ 7 p.m. Discussions will be aimed toward middle and high school parents and based on how teens and adolescents can build strength and resilience as they develop throughout childhood. Panelists will include Laura Offutt, MD who will present positive and negative coping skills that children & adolescents gravitate towards when "growing up". Elizabeth Dreibelbis, MS, brings experience with parents & children on grief and loss issues that occur in adolescent development as part of her work in Kimberley's Korner. A representative from Delaware County District Attorney's Office will share how their office deals with cyber and physical bullying and the means to curtail & control these damaging intrusions into families & teenage lives. Registration: Please call or e-mail to register: parish.associate@verizon.net or 610-356-0459. All are welcome.

December 4 – Sunday Faith Forum at 11:15 a.m. at St. Thomas' Church, Whitemarsh in MacColl Auditorium - The Soul of a University - Drexel University President, John Fry will discuss the makings of a great university and the soul of one of the most important centers of higher education in our region that helps shape thousands of lives and the entire Philadelphia area. This lecture is given in honor of the late Carl Buchholz, who served on the Drexel University board. Carl was a close friend and confidant of President Fry, who bestowed an honorary doctorate on Carl on the last day of Carl's life.

Advent Book Study at Philadelphia Episcopal Cathedral.

The Making of an Ordinary Saint: My Journey from Frustration to Joy with the Spiritual Disciplines by Nathan Foster. Two Sundays, December 4, 11, 2016 from 11:45 a.m. – 1 p.m. in the Liem Azar Cathedral Center.

More than thirty years after his father's classic book brought them to the masses, Nathan Foster took his own unique path into the spiritual. Along the way, he found creative new ways to practice the disciplines and discovered that a vital, conversational relationship with God was truly within his grasp. In an engaging narrative style, he tells his story and invites you to join him on the journey. For more information, visit www.philadelphiacathedral.org or call (215) 386-0234, ext 13.

SERVICES

On Sunday, October 23, St. Philip's Episcopal Church will celebrate the Feast of St. Luke the Physician by a Healing Mass with anointing and laying on of hands for those ill in body, mind, and spirit. We will also pray for those in the healing profession of any kind. During the Adult forum at 9:15 a.m., Barbara Simmons, Director of The Peace Center, Langhorne, will be addressing the issue of violence in our world. All are welcome. St. Philip's Episcopal Church is located at 10 Chapel Road, New Hope or www.stphilipsnewhope.org.

Children of all ages are invited to wear costumes to Holy Spirit, Harleysville's celebration of the ancient Service of All Hallows' Eve at 4:30 p.m. on Sunday, October 30. This short service is interesting, a bit "spooky," and speaks of God's love and presence in all parts of creation. The service will be followed by a celebration with food, games and fun. Ghosts, witches and spirits have always been a part of the myths and traditions of human culture. The origins of All Hallows Eve dates back over 2000 years to the ancient Celtic festival of Samhain, which means the end of summer and celebrated the end of harvest. During the celebration the Celts lit bonfires and wore costumes. By the 600 to 800s CE, Christianity spread into the Celtic lands and the celebration became known as the Eve of All Hallows and eventually Halloween. For more information, visit the church web page at www.churchoftheholyspirit.us.

St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Honey Brook, PA is holding an All Saints Service of Remembrance in the style of Taizé on October 30, 2016 at 5:00 p.m. The Taizé worship tradition began many years ago at the ecumenical French monastic community of Taizé, France. It is a quiet service of meditation, reflection, readings and music. For more information email the parish office at secretary@stmarkshb.org.

Celebrating the Communion of Saints Past & Present at the Philadelphia Episcopal Cathedral on Sunday, November 6, 2016 at 10 a.m. - Holy Eucharist. Join us for the beautiful celebration of All Saints' Sunday as the community wraps itself once more in our prayer shawl of remembrance. We will also welcome and bless those have joined congregation within the last six months. For more information, visit www.philadelphiacathedral.org or call (215) 386-0234, ext 13.

November 13 – 8 a.m. and 10 a.m. – St. Thomas' Church, Whitemarsh will welcome The Very Rev. Andrew McGowan as Guest Preacher – Dr. McGowan, an Australian, is Dean of Berkeley Divinity School at Yale and the McFaddin Professor of Anglican Studies at Yale. His teaching and speaking focuses on ancient Christianity and modern Anglicanism and the connections between them, with particular emphasis on worship practices. His scholarly work explores ancient meals and sacrificial rituals. He is a keen amateur bread baker.

Feast of Christ the King on Sunday, November 20, 2016 at Philadelphia Episcopal Cathedral at 10 a.m. - Holy Eucharist. Guest Choir – The Cathedral Choir School of Delaware. The Cathedral Choir School of Delaware, under the direction of Arreon Harley, will join the Cathedral Singers for this Festival Eucharist at the Cathedral as we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King marking the last Sunday of the liturgical year. For more information, visit www.philadelphiacathedral.org or call (215) 386-0234, ext 13.

Children's Christmas Pageant & Greening of the Philadelphia Episcopal Cathedral on Sunday, December 18, 2016 at 10 a.m. - Holy Eucharist. The pageant occurs during our Sunday morning worship. It is followed by refreshments and a "carol sing" as we decorate and "green" the Cathedral in joyful anticipation of Christ's birth. For more information, visit www.philadelphiacathedral.org or call (215) 386-0234, ext 13.

Service of Light in the Darkness at the Philadelphia Episcopal Cathedral on Sunday, December 18, 2016 at 4 p.m. - Holy Eucharist. This poignant candle-light service is a time set apart during the Advent season when we may acknowledge feelings of sadness, grief, anger or disappointment, and offer them to God for healing and reconciliation. We find hope and comfort in knowing that we are not alone. For more information, visit www.philadelphiacathedral.org or call (215) 386-0234, ext 13.

Christmas Eve at the Philadelphia Episcopal Cathedral - Feast of the Nativity on Saturday, December 24, 2016 at 5 p.m. - Festival Eucharist and Blessing of the Crèche. This service of Holy Eucharist begins with a prelude of sacred choral music and congregational carols, and includes the blessing of the Christmas Crèche as we joyfully give thanks for the birth of Christ. For more information, visit www.philadelphiacathedral.org or call (215) 386-0234, ext 13.

Christmas Day | Feast of the Nativity at the Philadelphia Episcopal Cathedral on Sunday, December 25, 2016 at 10 a.m. - Holy Eucharist. A quiet service of grace and peace on Christmas morning. For more information, visit www.philadelphiacathedral.org or call (215) 386-0234, ext 13.

This will be a great opportunity to purchase holiday or hostess gifts while making a difference. Thistle Farms is a social enterprise of women who have survived lives of trafficking, prostitution and addiction. With a deep root that pushes through concrete and survives drought, the thistle is a symbol of beauty and resilience. Trinity Solebury has purchased an assortment of Thistle Farms organic personal care items and invites the community to join us in making a difference with this fun event to kick-off the holiday shopping season. All proceeds benefit Thistle Farms, a non-profit organization. No credit cards please. Checks preferred. For additional information, visit www.trinitysolebury.org or call the church at 215-297-5135.

The annual Owls, Ogres, & an Organist Concert will be held on Sunday, October 30 at 4 p.m. at Church of St. Martin-in-the-Fields.

This is a Halloween-inspired concert for children of all ages to hear some of the spookiest music ever written played on Dracula's instrument of choice, the pipe organ. The music is performed by music director Erik Meyer, and accompanied by various Halloween cartoons. There is a costume parade with prizes, so be sure to dress up! The concert is followed by a small reception with ghoulish snacks. This is often a hilarious event that draws all sorts of bizarre creatures, so don't miss it! Church of St. Martin-in-the-Fields, 8000 St. Martin's Lane, Philadelphia, PA 19118. For more information, visit www.StMartinEC.org or call 215-247-7466.

All Saints' Evensong at Church of St. Martin-in-the-Fields will take place on Sunday, November 6 at 5:00 p.m. Evensong will be sung by St. Martin's Chancel Choir as led by music director Erik Meyer. Bring photos of loved ones for the altar display. Enjoy the beauty of our Columbarium lit with candles to remember those gone before us. Mt. Airy resident, The Rev. Courtney Davis Olds, an ordained minister in the American Baptist Churches, USA and PhD student in Leadership and Change at Antioch University, will preach. Church of St. Martin-in-the-Fields, 8000 St. Martin's Lane, Philadelphia, PA 19118. For more information, visit www.StMartinEC.org or call 215-247-7466.

Join us for the First Candlelight Concert

in the new Emily Norris Carey Learning Center Chapel at St. Thomas' Church, Whitemarsh on Sunday, November 6 at 7 p.m. Philadelphia composer Samuel Barber composed the Hermit Songs in 1953, based on writings of Irish monks between the 8th and 13th centuries.

James Primosch, another Philadelphia composer who has taught at the University of Pennsylvania since 1988, sets Three Folk Hymns in an imaginative, evocative, modern style. These two sets frame the Swedish Romantic composer Wilhelm Stenhammar's Five Ballads on Texts of J. L. Runeberg, setting Swedish love poetry in elegant melodic lines reminiscent of folk influences. A suggested donation of $20 will be appreciated at the door.

ITEMS FREE/FOR SALE TO PARISHES

We have a CONN Organ in good working condition and is free to whomever can give it a good home. Will need to pick up. St. James Episcopal Church, 732 11th Avenue, Prospect Park, PA 19076. For more information, call 610-464-6698 or email: stjames732@gmail.com.

“The function of education is to teach one to think intensively and to think critically. Intelligence plus character - that is the goal of true education.” - Dr.

Martin Luther King, Jr. St. James School is an Episcopal middle school committed to educating students living within an under-resourced neighborhood in North Philadelphia. Are you interested in learning more about St. James School? Invite us to your church's coffee hour or adult forum. Two of our teachers or staff will tell you more about our history, mission, and how you and/or your parish can partner with us to break the cycle of poverty through education. Please contact Mary Chris Lindsay at mclindsay@stjamesphila.org to set up a future visit.”

MUSIC

A Quiet Night and a Perfect End:

Gregorian Chant in Swarthmore. All interested singers are invited to participate in a drop-in session of Gregorian chant singing on Wednesday afternoons at 4:30 p.m. in the Chancel (Entrance through office door) at Trinity Church, Swarthmore. Sung for over a thousand years, plainchant is the oldest repertoire that exists in the Western musical tradition. Participants will have an opportunity to sing and experience Gregorian chant in a relaxing and peaceful atmosphere. We will learn the music aurally, and through a combination of medieval and modern sources, imitating the experience of Medieval singers. Sessions will take place weekly, and will be led by Professor James Blasina (Department of Music & Dance, Swarthmore College). Feel free to jblasin1@swarthmore.edu with any questions. This will continue through and including December 14, except November 23.

Exciting local music is coming to Incarnation Holy Sacrament Episcopal Church. Starting in September, and running through the fall and winter months, IHS Drexel Hill will be hosting a Coffee House Open Mic and Concert Series.

We'll bring in two local musicians to play longer sets and open the rest of the time up for members of the audience to share songs. We will sell refreshments and snacks to help raise money for the church. Please come check one out and tell your friends and loved ones. 3000 Garrett Road Drexel Hill, PA 19026.

REQUESTS FOR ITEMS

The Clothing Nook at St. Luke's, Germantown is sponsoring a Winter Coat Drive. Gently used coats, especially for children, are most welcome. You may call the church office at 215-844-8544, or if there is a large collection of coats, we will come to you!

The Food Pantry of St. Luke's Germantown is in Need of Shopping Carts for our elderly clients to take their food items home. If you would be so kind as to help us in this endeavor; our clients would greatly appreciate it and so would we! For more information on how to donate/contribute-call the Church Office at 215-844-8544.

St. Mark's Church, Frankford is looking for Donations of Both Hard Backed and Soft Covered Books of Common Prayer (new or used). We are working hand in hand with a number of Recovery Houses in our area, and we have been giving new members and those newly accepted into local recovery houses these books - and they are graciously accepted and used on a daily basis. This is becoming a financially unsustainable action, however, and we sure could use some help. If you have Books of Common Prayer that you can donate, please call St. Mark's, Frankford at 215-535-0635 or email the secretary at imaeormaeknot@gmail.com. We can make arrangements for pick up.

GIFT/THRIFT SHOPS

Trinity Thrift Shop @ Trinity Episcopal Church Swarthmore.

Housewares, linens, small appliances, furniture, books, clothing (vintage & otherwise), toys, jewelry, vintage items and fine collectibles. October Sale Dates: Friday, October 7th from 8:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m. Friday, October 21st 8:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m.

Christ Episcopal Church, Pottstown's "Second Chance" Thrift Shoppe reopened with our fall/winter fashions and housewares on September 7th, 2016. Our hours are Wednesday mornings from 8:00 a.m. to 11:45 a.m. SCTS serves our community with very affordable items, and if there is a verified financial need, vouchers are available through our clergy. We operate solely on the generous contributions from our parish family and friends. The income generated for our Church aids in emergency expenses and helps to purchase items that are needed for the church but not covered in the general budget. We are truly blessed to often receive some very "high end" household goods and "designer" clothing. Stop in to see us - we are sure you will be pleased and will perhaps find that "treasure" you are looking for.

TEACHERS

St. Paul's Elkins Park, a multicultural and inclusive Episcopal Church, is looking for Two Paid Sunday School Teachers to teach two classes - Ages 5 to 10 and ages 11 to 15. Present attendance is 4-5 per class but we are growing. Syllabus

& all material is online (www.weavinggospelpromises.org), augmented with our own multicultural material. Hours 10 a.m. to about 12 noon Sundays till end of May, days off by arrangement, no Sunday School on major feast days. Up to $50 per session (including any meetings) depending on experience. This is an exciting spirit-led opportunity at a unique parish. www.stpaulselkinspark.org. Call Rev. Paul Reid 610-937-9801 or email paul@stpaulselkinpark.org.
