

EPISCOPAL DIOCESE
of PENNSYLVANIA

PARISH TO PARISH WEEKLY

A weekly publication of the Diocese of Pennsylvania's Communication Network. These brief "classifieds" are intended to keep the members of the Diocese abreast of programs and activities in our parishes, share position openings throughout the Diocese, and to let others know if we have excess good/items they might be able to use. As in many "Classified Ads", articles should not exceed 150 words in length (total, and no graphics) and may be submitted to J.D. Lafrance (idlafrance@diopa.org) no later than Wednesday 10 a.m. each week for distribution via e-mail to the Diocese later that day. This document may be copied for distribution as desired.

Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania - 3717 Chestnut Street, Suite 300, Philadelphia, PA 19104 - (215) 627-6434 www.diopa.org

The Anti-Racism Commission of the Diocese of Pennsylvania invites you to join us for a Day-Long Training on October 8 and October 15, 2016 from 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at Grace Epiphany Church, Gowen and Ardleigh Avenues. Cost is $25 and includes a continental breakfast and lunch. Those of you trained elsewhere or a long time ago are welcome to refresh the experience. In addition, the Diocese has a resolution saying that persons who are members of committees and commissions already and/or those running should avail themselves of the training. Come prepared to learn more about racism and its impact on the institutions in our society, including the church. For more information or to register, contact Jane Cosby at 215-848-1760.

The Diocesan History Committee is planning an event, Signs of the Times: Discovering the Present in What Remains of the Past at St. Luke's Church, Germantown on October 22nd from 9:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. It will be the first of what we hope will be an annual event at a historic parish in the Diocese. St. Luke's Church, Germantown dates to 1811 when Germantown was actually outside Philadelphia. It has produced three bishops (e.g. Barbara Harris) and helped support many sister congregations such as the House of Prayer in West Oak Lane and St. Albans in Olney. In 1968, St. Luke's merged with St. Barnabas, one of the historically black churches in the diocese. Today it faces many of the same challenges as other urban churches in the diocese. Among the speakers will be Mark Lloyd, the chief archivist at Penn and the Rt. Rev. Frank Griswold. Register online: <https://diopa.wufoo.com/forms/history-symposium-october-22-2016/>.

Spiritual Cinema & Discussion on Friday, October 28th at 7 p.m. in St. Luke's Parish Hall, 1946 Welsh Road, Philadelphia PA.

The featured presentation is The Overture. "An exhilarating journey that begins at the turn of the century in Thailand, this magnificent film fills us with the magic of music, culture and tradition." A 10-minute short film, entitled, "Does God Play Football?" will precede the featured film. Free organic popcorn and iced. A good will offering is appreciated. Contact number: (215) 969-3645.

SERVICES

Pet Blessing at St. George's. On Sunday, October 2nd, in honor of the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi, Fr. Ryan will bless all pets brought to St. George's, Ardmore for the 10:00 a.m. Eucharist (West Ardmore Ave at Darby Rd). All socialized pets will be welcomed into our church for the service, where they will receive a special blessing after the sermon. Come celebrate our animal companions: furry, feathered, scaly or finned.

On Sunday, October 2, in honor of St. Francis, the Episcopal Church of the Ascension will have a special Blessing of Pets. The blessing of pets and their owners will take place prior to the 10:15 a.m. service on the lawn of the church located at 406 Second Avenue, Parkesburg. Everyone is invited to bring their well-behaved pets on a leash, in a crate, or box, etc. If your pet is unable to attend, consider bringing a photo and children are encouraged to bring a stuffed animal! A special offering will be collected and given to the Chester County SPCA. Donations of the following are needed and will also be collected—peanut butter, dry & wet pet food, washable animal toys, pet carriers, towels, sheets, blankets, liquid dish detergent, paper towels, etc. Thank you! Call 610-857-9176 for more information or visit our website: www.ascensionparkesburg.org.

Bring your companion pets on Sunday, October 2 to the Annual Blessing of the Animals service at 10:15 a.m. at the Church of the Holy Spirit, 2871 Barndt Road, at Sumneytown Pike in Upper Salford. Weather permitting, the service will be held outdoors. Each animal will receive an individual blessing. Pets must be in carriers or on leashes. Bring lawn chairs or blankets. There will also be several animal shelters on hand, and pet food and supplies will be collected for organizations that serve pets in need. For more info, call 215-234-8020.

Blessing of the Animals at Church of the Messiah on Sunday, October 2, 2016 at 9:30 a.m. – In the spirit of blessed St. Francis, our 9:30 Eucharist will feature special prayers for the environment and blessings for animals and pets. You are invited to bring your pets (appropriately leashed, caged or restrained) or if you cannot bring your pet, consider bringing a photograph, a collar, food bowl, or something else to represent your pet. You and your pet will receive a blessing from the clergy during Communion. Plan to join us afterward for special “animal themed” refreshments during coffee hour. Church of the Messiah, 1001 Dekalb Pike Lower Gwynedd, PA 19002. For more info, call 215-699-9204 or visit our website: www.messiahgwynedd.org.

Pet Blessing in New Hope Open to All.

The motto at St. Philip's Episcopal Church, New Hope is “everyone is welcome and we really mean it!” Now, the parish priest Michael Ruk is extending the warm welcome to everyone AND their pets. On Sunday, October 2, 2-3 p.m., the priest will be at the parking lot on Chapel Road alongside Magill's Hill, to bless animals, in honor of St. Francis of Assisi, the patron of animals. To participate, bring your pet to the park on a leash or in a carrier for the pet's safety. The blessing just takes a moment. In previous years, Father Michael has blessed dogs, cats, birds, lizards, turtles and even a tarantula at the church. He says, “All God's creatures.” The event is so well-liked by the parish of St. Philip's, that he is inviting the whole town, so everyone can participate. The event will be free and open to the public.

St. Francis Blessing of the Animals at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, 199 W. Baltimore Avenue, Clifton Heights - On Sunday, October 2nd at 10 a.m., we will bless pets of all kinds and share the Holy Eucharist.

The service will be held on the lawn. In the case of inclement weather we will move inside. There will be snacks for humans and pets.

Join Saint Mark's Church, Philadelphia, on Sunday, October 2 for our annual Blessing of the Animals at 2:30 p.m., followed by Choral Evensong at 3 p.m., sung by the Parish Choir and the Choir of Boys & Girls. As long as your pet can fit through the doors and behave themselves reasonably well, he or she is welcome to join us in church! At Evensong, we will formally institute Robert McCormick as our new Organist and Choirmaster. Your presence is requested on this joyous occasion, followed by a festive reception. For more information, visit saintmarksphiladelphia.org or call 215-735-1416.

Blessing of Pets & Pet Fair on Sunday, October 2 from 2 p.m.-5 p.m., Holy Nativity, Rockledge. All pets are welcome (small, medium, large, stuffed animals, and pictures of your beloved pet) to come and be celebrated during an ecumenical service devoted to the blessing of your animals that starts promptly at 2 p.m. The clergy of Holy Nativity will be on hand throughout the pet fair to bless your pets if you are unable to attend the service. Pet Fair; Shelter & Rescue info, Groomer & Trainers, Bake Sale, K-9 Unit, Exotic Animals, Pet Products & Craft Sales, Adoption Info, Demonstrations, Raffles, Refreshments, Veterinary Specialists, Safety, Services, and much more! ONGOING EVENTS

PROGRAMS

For 15 years the Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania has offered the Servant Year Program, inviting young adults to spend one year in service to our diocese. A willingness to live simply, intentionally and to compassionately serve is the mainstay of Servant Year. The program is on hiatus as we discern where to make improvements and we need your help! We are surveying our churches to see how many know about the program and how it can better serve the needs of our diocese. Even if you have never heard of Servant Year, your input is important to us as we work to keep this program relevant to the needs of our Diocese. A link to the survey is imbedded below. You are invited to click on the link and take the survey. It will take only 3 minutes we promise! And your input will make a difference. Thank you! https://www.surveymonkey.com/collect/?sm=4Bbt5_2BAP-hea0DyhYNB65MKHGCtmde4vq6SDZ66qceAM_3D.

MUSIC

A Quiet Night and a Perfect End: Gregorian Chant in Swarthmore. All interested singers are invited to participate in a drop-in session of Gregorian chant singing on Wednesday afternoons at 4:30 p.m. in the Chancel (Entrance through office door) at Trinity Church, Swarthmore. Sung for over a thousand years, plainchant is the oldest repertoire that exists in the Western musical tradition. Participants will have an opportunity to sing and experience Gregorian chant in a relaxing and peaceful atmosphere. We will learn the music aurally, and through a combination of medieval and modern sources, imitating the experience of Medieval singers. Sessions will take place weekly, and will be led by Professor James Blasina (Department of Music & Dance, Swarthmore College). Feel free to jblasin1@swarthmore.edu with any questions. This will continue through and including December 14, except November 23.

Exciting local music is coming to Incarnation Holy Sacrament Episcopal Church. Starting in September, and running through the fall and winter months, IHS Drexel Hill will be hosting a Coffee House Open Mic and Concert Series. We'll bring in two local musicians to play longer sets and open the rest of the time up for members of the audience to share songs. We will sell refreshments and snacks to help raise money for the church. Please come check one out and tell your friends and loved ones. Our first coffee house will be Friday, September 30th from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. 3000 Garrett Road Drexel Hill, PA 19026.

The Food Pantry of St. Luke's Germantown is in Need of Shopping Carts for our elderly clients to take their food items home. If you would be so kind as to help us in this endeavor; our clients would greatly appreciate it

St. Mark's Church, Frankford is looking for Donations of Both Hard Backed and Soft Covered Books of Common Prayer (new or used). We are working hand in hand with a number of Recovery Houses in our area, and we have been giving new members and those newly accepted into local recovery houses these books - and they are graciously accepted and used on a daily basis. This is becoming a financially unsustainable action, however, and we sure could use some help. If you have Books of Common Prayer that you can donate, please call St. Mark's, Frankford at 215-535-0635 or email the secretary at imaecormaeknot@gmail.com. We can make arrangements for pick up.

St. Mark's Church, Frankford's Food Pantry

is running very low. It takes a village to raise a child and our children are really hungry. Our food ministry is open for all and committing to continuing to offer meals to anyone in need. We need your help feeding them. To make donations of non-perishable food items (These include: canned tuna, canned pasta, boxes of cereal, peanut butter in the regular or smaller size.) or financial contributions, please contact Frankford Missioner Blair Jordan at blair@stmarksfrankford.org or Nadira Johnson at (215) 535-0635. Donations may be picked up. Thank you in advance, the St. Mark's Church, Frankford family.

GIFT/THRIFT SHOPS

Christ Episcopal Church, Pottstown's "Second Chance" Thrift Shoppe reopened with our fall/winter fashions and housewares on September 7th, 2016. Our hours are Wednesday mornings from 8:00 a.m. to 11:45 a.m. SCTS serves our community with very affordable items, and if there is a verified financial need, vouchers are available through our clergy. We operate solely on the generous contributions from our parish family and friends. The income generated for our Church aids in emergency expenses and helps to purchase items that are needed for the church but not covered in the general budget. We are truly blessed to often receive some very "high end" household goods and "designer" clothing. Stop in to see us - we are sure you will be pleased and will perhaps find that "treasure" you are looking for.
