The Diocesan History Committee is planning an event, Historic Diocese, Historic Parishes: Come and See the Present and the Future in the Past at St. Luke's Church, Germantown on October 22nd from 9:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. It will be the first of what we hope will be an annual event at a historic parish in the Diocese. St. Luke's Church, Germantown dates to 1811 when Germantown was actually outside Philadelphia. It has produced three bishops (e.g. Barbara Harris) and helped support many sister congregations such as the House of Prayer in West Oak Lane and St. Albans in Olney. In 1968, it merged with St. Barnabas, one of the historically black churches in the diocese. Today it faces many of the same challenges as other urban churches in the diocese. Among the speakers will be Mark Lloyd, the chief archivist at Penn and the Very Reverend Frank Griswold.

SERVICES

On Sunday, August 14, St. Christopher's Church in Gladwyne will be celebrating Holy Eucharist in its earliest original English version, made official in 1549 at the height of the Reformation in the reign of the young Protestant King Edward VI, son of Henry VIII. The Bible lessons date from 1535 in Coverdale's translation. Edward died in his teens and was succeeded by his sister, known to history as 'Bloody Mary,' who was Roman Catholic and therefore burned at the stake Archbishop Thomas Cranmer and many other martyrs, Cranmer being the principal author of the Prayer Book. Indeed, in Mary's time even to own a copy was to court death, so only some twenty are still in existence. Come worship with us and enjoy the resonance of liturgy in the sixteenth century. Much will be familiar to you since the Episcopal Church has always revered the phraseology and the devotion of Thomas Cranmer.
