

Restoring Conversations

A six-week workshop on civil communication.

Our communication circuitry has shorted out and loving our neighbor is more challenging than ever. Do you yearn to be deeply heard without judgement? Do you want to restore and build deeper relationships with your family, friends and community? If so, please join us for "Restoring Conversations."

"Restoring Conversations" is a 6-week workshop series that will introduce a more effective way to have civil conversations. Together, we will learn and practice a communication approach that will strengthen relationships, build interpersonal connections, collaborative relationships, improve community communications, and expand perspectives.

This invitation is extended to people of all beliefs and backgrounds.

Led by Elaine Hansen and hosted and sponsored by A&HT Episcopal Church, we will work in both large and small groups, focusing on specific techniques to engage meaningfully and constructively. We will use Community the Structure of Belonging by Peter Block as source material for this workshop.

Dates: Saturdays, March 4, March 11, March 18 and April 8, April 15, and April 22
