DIANNE P. MANGES, CFA®

Senior Investment Advisor
Truist Foundations & Endowments

Dianne is a Senior OCIO Investment Advisor with the Truist Foundations and Endowments Specialty Practice. Her role is to advise on the development and implementation of investment strategies to help nonprofit clients meet their short and long-term goals. In accomplishing that role, she follows adisciplined team-centered process of assessing an organization's financial situation, determines risk tolerance, and forms and executes an appropriate investment strategy along with regular portfolio rebalancing to obtain measurable results for our clients.

In her 30-plus-year career, Dianne has held senior positions including senior portfolio manager and director of fixed income and has sat on intra-firm investment committees. She has also authored regular economic and market commentaries for clients and teammates. Dianne earned a bachelor's degree in Economics from Immaculata University where she graduated summa cum laude and was awarded the top medal in the Economics program.

Dianne is a member of the Board of Trustees for Immaculata University, where she recently served on the Board of Alumni and Business Advisory Board. She serves as Vice Chair of the board of Gemma Services Foundation and as a mentor with "Inve$t in Her Future." She is an active member and past Board of Governor of the CFA Society of Philadelphia where she currently chairs the Newsletter Committee. She's past president and current Board of Governor of The Bond Club of Philadelphia. In addition, Dianne is a member of Women United of United Way Greater Lehigh Valley, Women's Business Council Greater Lehigh Valley Chamber of Commerce, Society of Professional Women Main Line Chamber of Commerce, Women2Women of Greater Reading Chamber of Commerce, Women Influencing Business Council of the Chester County Chamber of Commerce, Women in Investing Network, Global Interdependence Center, Philadelphia Council for Business Economics, Investment Traders Association, 100 Women in Finance, the Irish American Business Chamber & Network, and The Society of the Friendly Sons & Daughters of St. Patrick.
