

Tootle Song

Hey, hey!

I caught you today...

Helping out the girl whose books fell on the floor,
Picking up some trash even though it wasn't yours.

Hey, hey!

I caught you today...

Sharing your markers with someone who had none,
Giving up your swing though your turn was not yet done.

Hey, hey!

I caught you today...

Speaking so kindly to someone who was sad,
Saying you were sorry and felt so very bad.

Hey, hey!

I see all the good things that you do,
You tootle me and I will tootle you...

Hey, hey!

We are tootlers and tootlees...

Let's help each other out to be the best that we can be!
