In recent years the US DOT and the various state agencies have made changes to the regulations impacting transportation compliance and operations. Some of these changes are currently in effect while others are coming up shortly. To assist you in keeping your operations in compliance and ahead of the compliance curve, this customized one-day seminar has been designed by FMANJ and NATC jointly.

The instructor for this full day seminar will be J.P. Gibbons, North American Transportation Consultants. Specifically the seminar will cover the following areas of transportation compliance:

Safety Areas

- Drug and Alcohol - Including addressing Medical and other uses use of Controlled Drugs
- CDL Changes and How to keep your CDL Valid
- Driver Qualifications and Authorized Background Checks
- Hours of Service – Logs v. ELDs and AOBDRs. When to use each
- Vehicle Equipment and Maintenance – What records are required and the detail

Hazardous Material Areas

- Documentation Requirements – On the Vehicle and in the Office
- Employee Training Requirements
- Cargo Tank Motor Vehicle (CTMV) Testing and Inspections
- Records Retention and Qualifications of CT Facilities
- Internal Inspections of CTMVs – What are my responsibilities and pitfalls to avoid
