

We support and enrich aging through community building and advocacy.

Online Dating for Older Adults

This might be YOU:

- Single and curious to learn about online dating for older adults
- It might be years since you dated & you wonder about this new online world
- Wonder how to keep yourself safe in this process
- Want to know about different dating sites
- Wonder how to begin, how to do a profile and what photos to use

This is ME—Joy, your presenter

- Used online dating sites as an older adult to search for a special someone
- Found a partner
- Got support in the process
- Want to pass on what I learned and pay it forward

Our presenter is Joy Aaronson, M.S.ED. Joy is an educator, facilitator, and writer. She is an AWN member and part of the Program Working Group

June 11th 10:00 -11:30, Oak Park Library, 834 Lake Street.

2nd Floor small meeting room (access from Art Gallery).

This program is limited to single/uncoupled AWN and community members. Participation limited to 20 people.

Preregistration required. RegisterAWNprogram@gmail.com