Fridays: July 5, 12, 19, 26 and Wednesday, July 24
Titan Express Mary Prince Legacy Bus Tour
Sponsored by the Department of Community and Cultural Affairs
Journey on a bus tour and discover the untold legacy and story of Mary Prince, and her contribution towards Emancipation in Bermuda. In this tour you will visit sites, and learn historical accounts about her life as an enslaved woman.

Time: 6:30 PM – 8:00 PM
Cost: $10 per person.
Details: Visit titantoursbermuda.com or contact 234-1096 for tickets or more details.

Thursday, July 18
Writing Our Lives: The Importance of Autobiography and Biography Today
Speakers: Dr. Arnold Rampersad, Professor Emeritus, Stanford University
A discussion of autobiography, memoir, and biography spanning from the New Testament, to the writing of Mary Prince, to the present; and a reflection on the crucial importance of “life-writing” to our understanding of ourselves and our history.

Time: 6:00 PM – 7:30 PM
Location: St. Theresa’s Cathedral Hall
Cost: This event is free to the public and does not require a ticket
Details: Visit communityandculture.bm or call 292-1681 for more details.

Tuesday, July 16
Bermudian Heartbeats 14th Annual Dr. Kenneth E. Robinson/Cyril Outerbridge Packwood Memorial Lecture: Langston Hughes, Bermuda, and the World of Poetry
Speakers: Dr. Arnold Rampersad, Professor Emeritus, Stanford University
Langston Hughes was a poet of the people, especially people of African descent in America, the Caribbean, and Bermuda; he also was a champion of an all-embracing, universal humanity.

Time: 6:00 PM – 7:30 PM
Location: Bermuda Underwater Exploration Institute
Cost: This event is free to the public and does not require a ticket

Thursday, July 25
The Latter Days of Mary Prince
Speakers: Dr. Margôt Maddison-MacFadyen, Banffing Postdoctoral Fellow, Nipissing University; Performance of “A Woman Named Prince”, choreographed by Conchita Ming and performed by Arielle Lee Ming, Rhona Pedro, and Sandra Williams
Journey through Mary Prince’s life, to not only confirm Prince’s testimony, but to also broaden Prince’s story of slavery and freedom. Dr. Maddison-MacFadyen will point out structures associated with Mary Prince in Bermuda, Grand Turk Island, Antigua, and London (UK), and will also provide new information about Prince’s mother Susannah, as well as new information about the latter years of Prince’s life. Following the lecture, there will be an interpretive dance performance of “A Woman Named Prince”.

Time: 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM
Location: Earl Cameron Theatre, City Hall
Cost: This event is free to the public and does not require a ticket
Details: Visit communityandculture.bm or call 292-1681 for more details.