Angels and Sparrows – Angels & Sparrows Pathway program provides a 2Gen framework for families, addressing the educational needs of both parents and children with the understanding that a child's success is interconnected to the success of the adults in their life. The Pathway fall semester kicks off on Wednesday, September 9th and current volunteer opportunities include:

Reading Buddy: Work with small groups of students, grades Pre-K - 2nd, to build and enhance literacy skills.

Literacy Lead: Work with small groups of students, grades 3-5, on literacy enrichment projects to encourage a love of reading.

Academic Tutor: Work with small groups of students, grades Pre-K - 2nd, to meet academic needs and build skills around reading and math.

Volunteers serve one night per week (Monday - Thursday) for one hour between 6:00 - 8:00p, depending on the role.

Contact Waverly Smith at waverly@angelsandsparrows.org or visit <https://angelsandsparrows.org/volunteer/> for more information.

Caterpillar Ministries – Tutoring opportunities are at Torrence Creek Elementary on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons from 3:30 – 4:45 beginning September 29th. You must be a registered volunteer with Caterpillar Ministries to participate. Contact Lisa to learn more at lisa@caterpillarministries.org • 980-505-6033.

Local Elementary Schools – Some schools allow tutors to help out both during the school day and in after-school programs. Contact the schools directly to learn more.
