Giving Jesus, be our bread at this table you have spread; now and in the years ahead, eat with us and be our bread. Giving Jesus, be our bread. Giving Jesus, be our bread. Healing Jesus, be our wine; in your cup is grace divine. Every time and place we dine, drink with us, and be our wine. Leading Jesus, be our song: carols soft and marches strong. In your chorus we belong; sing with us and be our song. Loving Jesus, be our peace; may your presence never cease; make our thankfulness increase. Stay with us and be our peace. Loving Jesus be our peace, be our joy, be our friend, be our song, be our wine, be our bread.

Please pass the fellowship register to the end of the pew and back at this time.

THE SACRAMENT OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

Invitation to the Table

Great Prayer of Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is here in our act of communion that the promises made in our confession and assurance come to life. When we participate in the Holy Feast we are fed, but we are now sent as the body of Christ out into the world so that we may be nourishment for others.

Create in me a Clean Heart, O God

Silent Prayers of Confession

Lord in your mercy,
hear our prayers.

The text from for this hymn comes from Psalm 51 and is one of the Penitential Psalms. It begins: "Have mercy on me, O God", for which it is traditionally known as the Miserere. The psalm is frequently used in both Jewish and Christian liturgical traditions because of its spirit of humility and repentance. The text of the psalm is David's plea for mercy and absolution from sin.

Davidson College Presbyterian Church is an Earth Care and Stephen Ministry congregation on the corner of campus and community. This congregation celebrates partnerships in Christ with the Sigona Presbyterian Church in Kikuyu, Kenya, and the Kilambe communities in Jinotega, Nicaragua and Blythe Elementary School in Huntersville, NC. Together we seek to grow in witnessing to Christ in a complex world and to learn more about how to respond as disciples to the great needs of the world.

We are the body of Christ—
worshipping, learning, serving,

loving, giving—

seeking to realize God's vision for the world.
