

Worship this Sunday

We are in the midst of the “12 Days of Christmas” and what better time is there to be reminded of what behavior a Christian - a disciple of Jesus - should model to the secular world. Colossians 3: 12-17 offers a glimpse of the qualities disciples might well seek to offer to a hurting world. It mentions forgiveness, and this Sunday, we will be treated to a short video retelling an historical example of real forgiveness. The video will be shown during both chapel worship services. I hope to see you in worship on Sunday
