New Members

Acuff, Cathy

Cathy Acuff

Cathy lives in Cornelius and is the mother of DCPC member, Haley Todd! She has two other grown children as well, Cassidy and Tea. Cathy moved to this area from Dallas, TX. She is retired and has had a full and varied career in the work force in teaching, law, medical administration, and retail. She is an Ordained Elder in the PC(USA) and has had experience as Clerk of Session, Stephen Ministry, community service with organizations such as Angels with Aprons (a food ministry), divorce care support groups, Bible studies, and welcoming new members. Cathy enjoys reading, theatre, and taking field trips – especially to farms. She loves meeting new people and fostering new ideas.

Cathy is joining us by Letter of Transfer from Preston Hollow Presbyterian Church in Dallas, TX, and she is hosted by Marnite Calder.

Adams, Clayton Todd

Clayton Todd Adams & Eric John Newell

Clayton and Eric live in Huntersville with their adopted daughter from birth, Elaine. Clayton is a stay-at-home parent who is originally from Wichita, KS, and he lived for 12 years as an adult in the Kansas City area. He graduated from Baker University in Baldwin, KS, and has previously worked in the fields of staffing and real estate. We celebrate that Clayton was recently baptized at DCPC! Eric was born in Ft. Dodge, IA, and grew up around Rockwell City, IA. He is a graduate of Iowa State University and has worked in retail management for over 20 years for various stores including Target, Kohl's, and Lowe's. Clayton and Eric met in Wichita in 2011, and they have been life partners for 12 years. They moved to Huntersville in 2021, for Eric's current job at Lowe's Corporate. Together they love beach vacations in Florida and Cancun. Eric loves home improvement projects and contributing to children's charities. Clayton loves crafting, cooking, photography, and summer gardening.

Clayton is joining us by Profession of Faith, and Eric is joining us by Reaffirmation of Faith. They are hosted by Tim & Debbi Wilkes.

Alfieri, Margo Jeanne

Kevin Edward Morris & Margo Jeanne Alfieri

Kevin and Margo live in the Davidson Bay neighborhood. Kevin is originally from Concord, NC. He graduated from UNC-Chapel Hill with a degree in Economics and then earned his Doctor of Pharmacy and Master of Business Administration degrees from Wingate University. He proudly serves our United States Veterans as a Clinical Pharmacist Practitioner at the Charlotte VA Clinic. When not cheering on the Tar Heels, Kevin enjoys traveling with Margo, kayaking on Lake Davidson, biking on the greenway, and visiting family and friends. Margo is originally from Salisbury, NC. She is a proud two-time graduate of Meredith College in Raleigh, NC. With degrees in Interpersonal Communication and a Master of Business Administration, she is the Regional Director of Strategic Giving for her alma mater where she connects donors' passions with philanthropic opportunities. She married into a Tar Heel family and enjoys cheering on the Heels alongside Kevin, traveling, kayaking, biking, and spending time with their seven nieces and nephews, family, and friends.

Kevin and Margo are joining us by Reaffirmation of Faith, and they are hosted by Jan Tevepaugh.

Alves, Ann W.
Alves, Michael J.

Michael J. Alves & Ann W. Alves

Michael and Ann live in Davidson. They are the parents of six sons and eight grandchildren! They are both originally from Massachusetts – Michael from Milford and Ann from Belmont. Michael is President of Alves Education Consultant Company and previously worked at Brown University with a specialization in school integration/planning. He has degrees from Bridgewater, Boston University, and Harvard. Michael's major interests are health, family, and managing his company. In his spare time he enjoys exercising, reading, and learning.

Ann was raised in the UCC church and has spent a lifetime committed to service as a Deacon, Chair of Mission & Outreach, Clerk/Officer of the church, Usher, and volunteering with many non-profits. She is a graduate of Colby-Sawyer College and has worked in banking and for Marriott. She spent 30 years of her life in Rockford, IL. Ann enjoys reading, bridge, and walking.

Michael is joining us by Reaffirmation of Faith, and Ann is joining us by Letter of Transfer from Payson Park Church in Belmont, MA. They are hosted by Mark & Nancy Siljander.

An, Shawn

Shawn An

Shawn is a first-generation Korean American, born in the Bronx, but raised in Harrisburg, NC, where he now lives. He is a 2024 graduate of Davidson College who double-majored in Biology and Hispanic Studies. During his time at Davidson, Shawn was an active member of our DCPC UKirk group and served in leadership as Outreach Coordinator and Moderator. He now works in Corporate Patient Access at Atrium Health. In his free time, Shawn enjoys playing piano, watching and playing basketball, and taking Mocha (the family dog) on nature walks.

Shawn is joining us by Reaffirmation of Faith, and he is hosted by Ben Slay.

Arias, Kristen Brooke Yates (Brooke)

Kristen Brooke Yates Arias (Brooke)

Brooke lives in North Charlotte with her husband, Abraham. She is originally from Wilkesboro, NC, but has lived in Charlotte since 2018. She works as a therapist with grieving families through KinderMourn. She loves their family pets (two cats and one dog), anything to do with nature, reading, and learning. She also enjoys volunteering with Charlotte communities where she donates her time. She especially loves working with kids or the elderly population.

Brooke is joining us by Reaffirmation of Faith, and she is hosted by David and Lisa Hilse.

Ashe, Nancy K

Nancy K. Ashe

Nancy lives at The Pines at Davidson. She has been widowed since 1994, and she has two grown children and four grandchildren who live close by in Mooresville, NC. She grew up in Red Bank, NJ, but she moved to Davidson from Palatine, IL, where she lived for the past 50 years. Nancy graduated from the University of Michigan with a BSN and worked as a Pediatric Nurse at University Hospital in Ann Arbor, MI, and at Duke Hospital in Durham, NC. When her children were in high school, she worked in the children's department of a local library. She has also volunteered in Pediatric ED, sung in her church choir, assisted with many different children's programs at church, and has been involved with Habitat for Humanity. She is an Ordained Elder and Deacon in the PC(USA). Nancy enjoys movies, cruising, ballroom dancing, and computer games.

Nancy joined us by Letter of Transfer from First Presbyterian Church of Arlington Heights in Arlington Heights, IL. She is hosted by Jean Johnston.

Austin, Linda Smith

John William Hallett & Linda Smith Austin

Jeb and Linda live in the Runnymede neighborhood in Davidson. They are the grandparents of five! Originally from Wheeling, WV, Jeb grew up Presbyterian. He is an Air Force Academy graduate and a Veteran. After receiving his medical degree from Duke University, he spent his medical career as a vascular surgeon. He has also been a Professor of Surgery for the Mayo Clinic and for MUSC in Charleston, SC. Jeb is a board member emeritus for the Gibbes Museum of Art, and he enjoys tennis, sailing, art, music, and most especially – family.

Linda grew up in San Jose, CA, and attended Stanford and Duke for college, then Duke for medical school before training as a Psychiatrist. She served as a Professor at MUSC and worked in public education programs including public radio and podcasting. She is most interested in Social Justice initiatives at DCPC. Linda enjoys cooking for friends and family, playing tennis and the piano, sailing, and gardening. Jeb and Linda spend their summers in Castine, Maine.

Jeb and Linda are joining us by Reaffirmation of Faith, and they are hosted by Wynn Mabry.

Bagwell, Catherine L

Catherine L. Bagwell and Ada Neill Hicks

Catherine and Ada live in Davidson with Catherine's husband and Ada's father, Doug Hicks—current president of Davidson College and clergy member of the Presbytery of Charlotte. The Hicks Family has another member, Noah, who is currently a sophomore at Caltech in Pasadena, CA. They moved to Davidson in 2022 for new jobs at Davidson College. Catherine is a professor in the Psychology Department. Originally from Richmond, VA, Catherine graduated from the University of Richmond and Duke University and then returned to the Univ. of Richmond to teach. Before moving to Davidson, they were at Oxford College of Emory University and Colgate

University. Catherine enjoys travel, cooking, and following kids around to their many activities.

Ada is a Junior at Cannon School. She is involved in cross country, soccer, and musical theatre there. She enjoys being part of our DCPC Youth Group and helping out in our 3rd Grade Sunday School class every week. In January, Ada will be ordained and installed as a Youth Elder on our Session! In her spare time, Ada enjoys travel, baking, reading, and art. She also loves spending time with her family and their two cats.

Catherine and Ada are joining us by Letter of Transfer from First Presbyterian Church in Covington, GA, and they are hosted by Shawn and Whittier Henry.

Beam, Adam Norman

Beam, Elizabeth Tate

Adam Norman Beam & Elizabeth Tate Beam

Adam and Elizabeth live in Davidson, in the Summer's Walk neighborhood, with their children Grant, Hayes, and Nora. They are NC natives – Adam from Concord and Elizabeth from Burlington. They met during college at NC State University and were brought back to the Lake Norman area for Adam's CRNA schooling. Adam currently works as a CRNA and Elizabeth as an office administrator. In their busy life with three little ones, you can often find this family at a nearby playground or coffee shop to keep up with their ever-increasing energy needs! The Beams love to take trips, whether to the beach or mountains, and they are excited to take their family of five to Boston this summer. The Beam Family also has a 7-year-old pug, Ellie, who loves to cuddle and has been an amazing sidekick with each baby. The Beams look forward to creating lasting friendships within the DCPC community.

Adam is joining us by Letter of Transfer from First Presbyterian Church in Concord, NC, and Elizabeth is joining us by Letter of Transfer from First Presbyterian Church in Burlington, NC. They are hosted by Gary & Jenny Vidmer.

Billings, Steven John

Steven John Billings

Steven lives in Mooresville with his wife, Lauren, and their children, Cooper and Grace. Lauren has actually been a member of DCPC since her Confirmation in 1997. Some longer-time members may remember her as Lauren Wylie! She was born in Charlotte but moved to Davidson when she was 8-years-old. She attended DCPC as a child all the way through high school. She went to UNC-Chapel Hill for her undergraduate degree and UNC-Charlotte for a Master of Social Work. She worked as a social worker until Cooper was born and now stays home with both children. She does some part-time work as an office manager for a construction company in Davidson. Lauren enjoys tennis, kayaking, and spending time with family and friends.

Steven grew up in Huntersville, went to NC State University, and lived in Raleigh for 10 years until moving to this area with Lauren in 2012 when they were married. He is a commercial insurance broker working with construction and trucking companies across the southeast. He loves outdoor activities and home improvement projects. Both Steven and Lauren have large extended families who live locally and whom they enjoy.

Steven is joining us by Reaffirmation of Faith, and they are hosted by Barry & Aimee Slagle.

Bloome, Andy

Bloome, Peg

Andy & Peg Blomme

Andy and Peg live in Mooresville in the Davidson Downes neighborhood, where they have been since March 2025. Peg and Andy met at the Coast Guard Academy in New London, CT, and they married in 1986. They have two grown sons – one on each coast. Andy retired from the U.S. Coast Guard in 2015 after 34 years of service, and then he “unretired” shortly after and went to work for a national affordable housing non-profit. Peg retired from the Coast Guard Reserve in 2013 but continued work in her own statistical analytics company, as a consultant, and as a project manager with Navy Federal Credit Union. They “retired for good” in February 2025 shortly before moving to this area. They both volunteer with the group “Sleep in Heavenly Peace” that builds beds for children that don’t have one. Peg plays tennis on a couple of local teams and Andy donates golf balls to woods, lakes, and ponds throughout the region.

Andy and Peg are joining us by Letter of Transfer from Fairfax Presbyterian Church in Fairfax, VA, and they are hosted by Brad and Trish Jones.

Tyler and Kristina live in Cornelius with their infant son, Hayes, in the Antiquity neighborhood. Tyler is from Burlington, NC, and graduated from NC State University. He is a wealth advisor who has worked for Truist Bank for 15 years. Tyler and Kristina met in Raleigh after college and so named their beloved Sheltie dog Raleigh. In Tyler's spare time, he enjoys golf, basketball, and tennis.

Kristina is originally from Cary, NC, where she and Tyler were married in 2013. She is a graduate of Elon University and has been an elementary school teacher for 14 years. She currently teaches 5th grade Math & Science at Cornelius Elementary. Kristina enjoys spending time with family and friends, tennis, and cooking.

Tyler and Kristina are joining us by Reaffirmation of Faith, and they are hosted by Paul and Katherine Long.

John Frank Bragg Jr.

Frank and his wife, Kathy, divide their time between a family farm in Huntersville and as residents of The Pines at Davidson. They have four grown children – three of whom are members of DCPC. Twelve of Frank and Kathy's grandchildren grew up here in this church – so Frank's joining is a "homecoming" of sorts! Frank is originally from Oxford, NC, and he is a graduate of Wake Forest University. He has spent his career in the financial services industry, but Frank has also spent a great deal of his life working with youth in Boy Scouts and as the co-founder of Right Moves For Youth serving at-risk youth. He is an Eagle Scout and received the Distinguished Eagle Scout award from the Boy Scouts of America for his ongoing service to scouting in the community. Frank has also had an over 30-year run so far as a volunteer in land conservation and has served as chairman of the Catawba Lands Conservancy, as vice-chair of the North Carolina Clean Water Management Trust Fund, and has served on the board of the Conservation Trust of North Carolina and with the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Historic Landmarks Commission. In his spare time, Frank enjoys his family, farming, birding, fishing, art, and he has a true passion for historical preservation.

Frank is joining us by Letter of Transfer from St. Johns Baptist Church in Charlotte, NC, and he is hosted by Van and Emily Beck.

Britt, Barrett Roy

Barrett Roy Britt

Barrett is a Sophomore at Davidson College who is originally from Creedmoor, NC. At Davidson, Barrett is planning to major in Economics and minor in History. He is also interested in many sports, such as Formula One, the NFL, and more. He is a former athlete and continues to play golf, tennis, basketball, and football. He has a passion for working on cars and is self-taught. He has attended multiple churches, multiple denominations, wherever his family was attending at the time. Joining DCPC will be his first personal, independent choice to become a member of a church, and he is very eager to become a part of our community of faith.

Barrett joined DCPC by Reaffirmation of Faith and is hosted by Scott and Crissie Abell.

Grace Carolyn McBride

Gracie is a Junior at Davidson College, where she is majoring in Communications, and she is originally from Gainesville, GA. She currently rides for the Davidson Equestrian Team and has been involved with horses in some capacity, primarily as a rider, her entire life. She showed Western for the better part of seven years and enjoyed every second of it. For two years at Davidson, she pivoted from horses to run track for Davidson's Track & Field Team. She has always connected with animals and wants to continue her involvement in equestrian for the rest of her life. She also loves her cat named Truffle and enjoys taking silly cat photos. DCPC reminds her of her home church, and she has felt very welcome and comfortable within our congregation. She is happy to become a member of our community of faith.

Gracie joined DCPC as an Affiliate Member, and her home church is First Presbyterian Church in Gainesville ,GA. Gracie is hosted by Scott and Crissie Abell.

Bruening, Grace Anne

Michael Justin Mammes and Grace Anne Bruening

Michael and Grace live in Charlotte and are engaged to be married at DCPC in April of 2021. Michael is from Raleigh, NC, but has been in Charlotte since 2011. Most of Michael's family is scattered around the NY/NJ area including his two eldest sisters, with his parents in Raleigh and closest-in-age sister also in Charlotte. He works in Finance and Sales. Grace is a Dietician who moved to this area a little over three years ago after graduating from the University of Dayton. Grace's parents live on Lake Norman, she has a brother in Charlotte, and the rest of her family is in Cincinnati, OH.

Michael and Grace enjoy spending time on Lake Norman, taking their dogs—Griffin and Archie—to dog parks, spending time with friends and family, and hosting cookouts. They are both former athletes (baseball, softball, and volleyball) and as such, they are both avid sports fans. Michael is a New York sports fan (Mets, Rangers, Knicks, and Jets), and Grace is an Ohio sports fan (Ohio State, Browns, and Indians).

Michael and Grace joined us by Profession of Faith, and they are hosted by Lovenia Summerville.

Greg and Laura are college sweethearts who moved to this area in 2008 expecting it to be a temporary move, but after more than 17 years and three children later – they are still here! In Greg's words, "something about North Carolina stays with you." Greg works as a product marketing and innovation manager for a medical device company. In his spare time, one can find him running, rowing on the lake, or playing with their three little ones.

Laura is originally from Madison, CT, and she attended the University of Maryland (as did Greg) before moving here. She works as a Physician Assistant and also stays joyfully busy with their three children. As a family, they enjoy volunteering at Feed NC, walking to the Farmer's Market, spending time on the water, cheering for the boys on the soccer field, and exploring nature with Emma. They are grateful to be a part of such a supportive church and town.

Greg and Laura are joining us by Reaffirmation of Faith, and they are hosted by Jon and Missy Martin.

Dively, Katherine Marie

Dively, Timothy Jon

Timothy Jon Dively & Katherine Marie Dively

Tim and Katie live in the Bordeaux neighborhood in Cornelius. Tim grew up in Macomb, IL, and attended Knox College and then Regis University in Denver, CO. After graduating from Knox, he moved to Wisconsin where he worked in both the insurance and banking industries leading technology, operations, and cybersecurity areas. Katie grew up in Wausau, WI. After college in New Hampshire, she traveled to Charlotte for graduate school at UNCC for public health. She returned to Wisconsin a few years later and met Tim and his two teenage boys, who are now 28 and 29. Tim and Katie recently relocated to Cornelius after wanting to be back in North Carolina for many years! The Divelys enjoy traveling, especially to Austin, TX, and Milwaukee, WI, to visit their boys and their families.

Tim and Katie are joining us by Letter of Transfer from Covenant Community Presbyterian Church in Schofield, WI, and they are hosted by Whitney and Elizabeth Norton.

Dodds, Brittany Bach

Dodds, Tyler John

Tyler John Dodds & Brittany Bach Dodds

Tyler and Brittany live in Davidson with their children, Wyatt and Lucia. Tyler was born in Wilton, CT, and works as a psychiatrist. Brittany was born in Marblehead, MA, and is a trained social worker. They fell in love over shared values of treating patients (and all) with love, dignity, and respect. They both love yoga, reading, and spending time as a family. They value giving back, and they donate to the Ada Jenkins Center, the ACLU, and the Davidson Housing Coalition. Tyler works with patients suffering from addiction. And Brittany feels blessed to lead our TK program at our DCPC Weekday Preschool!

Tyler and Brittany are joining us by Reaffirmation of Faith, and they are hosted by Aaron and Jacki Lane.

Dodillet, David R

Dodillet, Lynette L

David R. Dodillet & Lynette L. Dodillet

Dave and Lyn live in Huntersville. They are both recently retired, and they relocated to Charlotte from Long Island and Manhattan, NY. Both are originally from Illinois and graduated from the University of Illinois together. Dave and Lyn have two grown daughters, Lauren and Nicole, who both live in Boston, MA.

Dave and Lyn are joining us by Reaffirmation of Faith, and they are hosted by Tom and Louise Norwood.

Donnell, Steven Lee
Donnell, Susan Thiele

Steven Lee Donnell & Susan Thiele Donnell

Steve and Susan live in Cornelius in the Peninsula neighborhood. Steve was born and raised in Mattoon, IL, and Susan was born in Milwaukee and raised in Ripon, WI. They met in Chicago when they were both working for the Social Security Administration. They were married in 1981 at the Knox Presbyterian Church in Naperville, IL. They subsequently moved to Maryland and then lived for three years each in Frankfurt, Germany, and London, England. In 2016, they moved to Cornelius shortly before Steve retired in 2017. He is currently President of the Lakesiders Retired Men's Group and is on the Board of Directors for Davidson Learns. Steve and Susan love to travel and have visited 55 countries! Steve is an Ordained Elder in the PC(USA), and Susan is an Ordained Deacon in the PC(USA).

Steve and Susan are joining us by Reaffirmation of Faith, and they are hosted by Wynn Mabry and Allyson Ray.

Doyle, Dustin Daniel
Doyle, Lindsey Shirley

Dustin Daniel Doyle & Lindsey Shirley Doyle

Dustin and Lindsey live in Mooresville in the Stafford at Langtree neighborhood with their toddler son, Davis. Dustin is originally from Campbellsport, WI, and moved to the South to attend the University of South Carolina for his undergraduate degree. He currently works in software sales and enjoys playing sports with Davis and going on runs with their Labradoodle, Ollie. Lindsey is originally from Peachtree City, GA, and attended the University of Alabama. Dustin and Lindsey were married in 2016 and moved to Mooresville in 2017. Lindsey works in recruiting and sales within the healthcare industry. Davis keeps them very busy!

Dustin and Lindsey are joining us by Reaffirmation of Faith, and they are hosted by Mathew and Rae Harms.

Drummond, Mary Elizabeth

Drummond, Samuel Eliot

Samuel Elliot Drummond & Mary Elizabeth Drummond

Sam and Mary Elizabeth live in Cornelius with their daughter, Finley. Sam grew up in Black Mountain, NC. He started his undergraduate degree at UNC-Charlotte but later transferred to Clemson University, where he met Mary Elizabeth in Fort Hill Presbyterian Church's UKirk Program! He began his career as a distribution designer of a power grid company in the Asheville area and then took a new job this year with EnergyUnited, which prompted their move to Cornelius this past summer. Sam enjoys playing disc golf, hiking, and exploring new places with the family.

Mary Elizabeth grew up in Columbia, SC, and is also a graduate of Clemson University. Sam and Mary Elizabeth initially moved to Black Mountain in 2020, where she taught school until 2022. Then, she began a Master's in School Counseling program at Western Carolina in 2022 and only has a couple of semesters to go! Mary Elizabeth enjoys reading, going on walks with the family and their dogs, and visiting new places.

Sam is joining us by Letter of Transfer from First Presbyterian Church in Asheville, NC, and Mary Elizabeth is joining us by Letter of Transfer from Eastminster Presbyterian Church in Columbia, SC. They are hosted by John and Brandi Green.

Scott and Sonia joined us by Reaffirmation of Faith and are hosted by Pat Millen and Eileen Keeley.

Dudley, Alexis Miller

Alexis Miller Dudley

Lexi is the wife of lifelong DCPC member, Mac Dudley, daughter-in-law of DCPC members, Dave and Laura Dudley, and sister-in-law to DCPC member, Casey Dudley Kaszuba. Mac and Lexi were married at DCPC in February 2020, after being set up on a blind date by a mutual friend around three years ago! They currently live in Cornelius. Lexi grew up in Fort Mill, SC, and is a Clemson Graduate. She is a Technical Sales Representative for Clariant Corporation, where she specializes in chemical additives for coating applications. Since Lexi and Mac have family in the area, they enjoy spending time with both families, especially in her dad's boat on Lake Wylie. Lexi also enjoys fitness classes at Pure Barre and Orange Theory. Lexi and Mac both have careers requiring them to travel all over the US, so their time at home is limited and special. They love to cook together, ride bikes around the Cornelius/Davidson area, and entertaining friends and family.

Lexi joined us by Profession of Faith and is hosted by Brian & Meghan Leeper.

Duffy, Janet

Janet Duffy

Janet lives in Huntersville, NC, where she recently moved to be closer to her son, daughter-in-law, three granddaughters, and her daughter – who all live in Huntersville as well. She currently works as a loan officer, but she is also an avid traveler – both cruising and over land. In her spare time, Janet enjoys taking care of orchids and violets along with outdoor gardening. Janet is an Ordained Deacon in the PC (USA).

Janet joined us by Reaffirmation of Faith, and she is hosted by Nancy Siljander.

Dula, Elisabeth

Elisabeth Dula

Lisa lives in Davidson with her two children, Anna and James, who were both born in Kazakhstan. Lisa grew up in Burlington, NC. She is a UNC-Chapel Hill graduate and has an MBA from Wake Forest. She is currently a real estate agent and consultant in the Lake Norman area. As a family, the Dulas love to do anything outdoors, especially hiking, biking, and travelling. All are involved with Scout Troup 58 here in Davidson. They also enjoy community service and look forward to getting involved at DCPC.

Lisa joined us by Letter of Transfer from Myers Park Presbyterian Church in Charlotte, NC, and she is hosted by Cheryl Mikovch-Williams.

Dumizo, Linda Kathleen

Joseph Kuneke Dumizo and Linda Kathleen Dumizo

Joseph and Linda live in the Highland Creek Community in Charlotte, NC. Joseph is a lifelong Presbyterian, who was born in Cameroon, West Africa. His grandmother was one of the first Christians in his village, thanks to a group of missionaries. Joseph is a realtor and is broker-in-charge at his firm, Premier Choice, Inc. In his spare time, he enjoys doing yard work, boating, and making homemade wines. He has three adult children and two grandchildren.

Linda grew up on Long Island, NY, where she fell in love with swimming and beach-going. At age 5, her church organist mom taught her to read music, and from there Linda went on to study the flute. She began teaching privately at age 15 and earned a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Music Performance. She has been the flautist in many DCPC worship services – even post-Covid. In her spare time, she enjoys painting with watercolors and acrylics. She has two children.

Joseph and Linda are joining us by Reaffirmation of Faith and are hosted by Larry and Jane Cain

Duncan, Emily Wilson-Leonard

Emily Wilson-Leonard Duncan

Emily is a native North Carolinian who grew up in Charlotte and now lives in Mooresville with her children: Molly, Natalie, Maggie, and Miles. Emily is a Sign Language Interpreter. She currently works with Stanly County Schools and with Blazer Works. Emily has attended DCPC for several years and has been involved in many children and youth activities, social justice events, and Journey Group #5. She is also a current member of our Youth Ministry Committee.

Emily is joining us by Letter of Transfer from Williamson Chapel United Methodist Church in Mooresville, NC, and she is hosted by Will & Kristen Pleasants.

Dungan, Evan Grant
Dungan, Lauren Shirocky

Evan Grant Dungan and Lauren Shirocky Dungan

Evan and Lauren live in Cornelius with their two young children, Maddie and Hunter. Evan is originally from Marietta, GA, but lived all over the South throughout his childhood as his father was a U.S. Marine. He is currently a banker with Wells Fargo as a loss forecast analyst in the Consumer Credit Card space. Before Wells, he spent nearly ten years at Bank of America in an array of risk roles. Evan is also currently an officer in his neighborhood HOA. In his spare time, he loves to play adult league soccer, brew his own beer, build and fix things around the house, and spend as much time as possible with Maddie, Hunter, and their mini Golden Doodle, Bella.

Lauren is originally from Warrenton, VA, (Northern Virginia) but moved to NC in 2009 to attend law school. She also works at Wells Fargo and is in the Consumer Deposits space in Compliance. She also had previously worked for Bank of America in various risk and compliance roles. Lauren is a member of the Circle of Red for the Charlotte American Heart Association and speaks regularly on their behalf. In her spare time, she loves to run and walk (preferably outdoors), use her Peloton bike, sip Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon, and shop for the family.

Evan and Lauren are joining us by Profession of Faith, and they are hosted by David and Margaret Stauffer.

Eilbeck, Tari

We would also like to introduce Tari Eilbeck who joined in our April 2025 Session meeting.

Tari lives in Clemmons, where she currently resides as a widow. She was born in Ohio and met her late husband at Akron University, where they were both active in ROTC and then stationed at Ft. Bragg. After serving our military, they worked for IBM which brought them back to Raleigh, NC. After several corporate moves, they retired in Nevada before their “heart” brought them back to North Carolina. Tari’s home church has been DCPC for many years now thanks to WDAV and YouTube!

Tari joined us by Reaffirmation of Faith.

Ethridge, Carole B.

Ethridge, David A.

David A. Ethridge & Carole B. Ethridge

David and Carole live in Davidson. After meeting in Charlotte following graduations from Davidson College (David in 1988) and UNC-Chapel Hill (Carole in 1989), the Ethridges moved to the Northeast and raised a family with three children who now live in fun cities to visit (Chicago, NYC, and Washington, DC). Carole fell in love with the Town of Davidson after their oldest child, Sarah (2019), attended the college. David and Carole moved back to the town to experience the upside of a small college town with easy access to the arts and sporting events. Both David (an NC native) and Carole are excited to be back in NC at a thriving church in a growing community. David is an Ordained Elder and Deacon in the PC(USA), and Carole is an Ordained Deacon in the PC (USA).

David and Carole are joining us by Letter of Transfer from The Presbyterian Church of Chatham Township (PCCT) in Chatham, NJ.

Flur, Caroline Jean

Caroline Jean Flur

Caroline lives in Huntersville, in the Hampton Ridge neighborhood, with her husband, Adam, and their children, Ford and Collins. The Flurs moved to Huntersville in November from the Madison Park neighborhood in Charlotte, NC. Their son attends a bilingual preschool in Charlotte, but they hope to enroll him at the DCPC Weekday Preschool next year so that they can stop the daily I-77 commute. They are also looking for fluent Spanish speakers to connect with to help Ford keep improving his Spanish skills! Collins recently turned one, and her hobbies include eating and surviving an older brother who only wants to play cars and dinosaurs. The Flurs love watching sports, especially college basketball and the NFL. Caroline is a UNC-Chapel Hill grad and her husband went to Duke – so basketball season is always fun (or miserable depending on who you cheer for) in their house!

Caroline is joining us by Reaffirmation of Faith, and she is hosted by Tyler & Kristina Bowery.

Frankum, Kris Wayne

Frankum, Susan Diane

Kris Wayne Frankum & Susan Diane Frankum

Kris and Susan live in Cornelius in St. Philip Square. They moved to North Carolina in 2015 to be near family after spending most of their lives in Maryville, MO, where they still have family. They recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary and love spending time with their two grown children and four grandchildren. Kris is a retired pharmacist who enjoys spending time on their farm in Northwest Missouri, hunting turkey and whitetail deer, traveling, wood working, and robotics. Susan is a retired dental assistant and homemaker. She enjoys gardening, reading, playing games, and traveling.

Kris and Susan are joining us by Letter of Transfer from Bethel Presbyterian Church in Cornelius, NC, and they are hosted by Bill and Diedre Litzenberger.

Friess, Cynthia Jeanne Friess (Cindy)

Cynthia Jeanne Friess (Cindy)

Cindy lives in Huntersville where she recently moved to be near her son and his family. She has two other grown children – one in San Francisco, CA, and one in Portland, OR. Her husband passed away when their kids were in Junior High and High School. She and her husband raised their children in Oak Park, IL, a suburb of Chicago. Cindy grew up in Wisconsin and was baptized and confirmed in the Lutheran Church, as were all of her kids. She worked as an Actuary until recently but is now retired. She is happy to make the change to the PC (USA) and appreciates DCPC's message of service to our community and the world.

Cindy is joining us by Letter of Transfer from Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Oak Park, IL, and she is hosted by Harriet Regen.

Frisbie, Holly Young

He is a banker who loves to ski, fly fish, and exercise. Holly grew up in Asheville and went to UNC-Chapel Hill. She has worked in advertising and as an advocate to combat childhood poverty and hunger. In her spare time, she enjoys cooking, practicing yoga, and cycling. Their family recently moved here from Winston-Salem, NC, where they were involved with the youth program and Church Council at their former church.

Will and Holly joined DCPC by Letter of Transfer from Centenary United Methodist Church in Winston-Salem, NC, and they are hosted by Peter and Karen Castoral.

Frisbie, Mary Katherine

Mary Katherine Frisbie

Mary Kate lives in Davidson with her family. She is a 10th grader at Hough High School and already sings in our Chancel Choir! She was in the praise band at her former church where she also participated in a youth-run ministry called Love Thy Neighbor. She loves to sing, read, swim, run, and ski.

Mary Kate joined us by Letter of Transfer from Centenary United Methodist Church in Winston Salem, NC, and is hosted by the Castoral family.

Fritz, Anna Rose J. Rose

Anna Rose J. Fritz

Anna lives in Davidson, after moving here from California last year with her parents, Gary Fritz and Carol Johnson Fritz, who are also joining DCPC. She works as a veterinary assistant with Stand for Animals. She is originally from Brookfield, Wisconsin, and she graduated from Pius XI in Milwaukee. She is a writer and loves to read. Anna also enjoys music and spending time with her friends.

Anna is joining us by Reaffirmation of Faith, and she is hosted by Riley Beatty.

Fritz, Carol Johnson

Fritz, Gary Walter

Gary Walter Fritz & Carol Johnson Fritz

Gary and Carol are Wisconsin natives – Gary from Rhinelander and Carol from Racine. Gary was baptized and confirmed in the United Congregational Church, and Carol was baptized and confirmed in the Presbyterian church – considering that her paternal grandfather and great grandfather were Presbyterian ministers! Gary and Carol met and were married in Milwaukee and joined Brookfield Presbyterian Church, where Gary became an Ordained Elder in the PC(USA). Gary, who has a B.A. from Lakeland University and an M.B.A. from Marquette University, has worked in venture capital, high tech, and health care IT for 40+ years, retiring in October of 2025. Carol graduated from Alverno College with a BSN and worked for 22 years as a pediatric nurse. In 2010, they moved to Franklin, TN, and were members of Second Presbyterian Church in Nashville, where Carol, a fiber artist/quilt maker focusing on modern quilting, was active in the church's liturgical arts program – creating large pieces for their Sanctuary. Carol has made many quilts for family and friends along with her liturgical pieces for the churches where they worship. Their last career move was in 2016, when Gary was recruited to be V.P. & Chief of Applications at Stanford Health Care in Palo Alto, CA. While there, he led several programs developing innovative technologies for healthcare. In retirement, they plan to travel and pursue interests in fiber art, wine, and education.

Gary and Carol are joining us by Letter of Transfer from Stone Presbyterian Church of Willow Glen in San Jose, CA, and they are hosted by Rick and Linda Drimalla.

Frye, Celia Brewer

Celia Brewer Frye

Celia lives in Mooresville with her husband, John, who is a member of the Presbytery of Western North Carolina. She is a native North Carolinian, growing up in Seagrove, NC. After graduating from UNC-Greensboro, she worked as an Extension Agent in Lenoir, NC. She has lived in Fort Lauderdale and Chicago while raising her two sons, Wes and Matt. In 1990, the family moved to High Point where she started her business, The Logo Shop. In 2017, she and John were married while he was serving as senior Pastor at First Presbyterian Church in Gastonia, NC. After his retirement, they moved to Mooresville to be near Davidson College (really!). Together they enjoy traveling, spending time with their combined seven grandchildren, attending Merlefest, and live theatre.

John is a native of Robbins, NC, and is a 1975 graduate of Davidson College. He also has degrees from Union Seminary and Columbia Theological Seminary. His sisters, Martha Frye Baker (Davidson '81) and Mary Frye Erwin (Davidson '83) along with his sons, John III (Davidson '03) are all Wildcats! Gardella, Beth Gardella, Lee

Lee & Beth Gardella

Lee and Beth live in Mooresville, and they are the parents of recent Davidson College grad and 9:45 music team member, Grace Gardella, who has now settled in Charlotte along with her twin sister, Emily! They also have a son, Lee, who lives in Atlanta. Lee is originally from the Chicago area, and he moved to Philadelphia at the age of 12 before eventually settling down in Connecticut to build a career and start a family. He currently works in the investment industry for Schroders Capital. Outside of work, Lee enjoys spending time with loved ones; boating and fishing on Lake Norman; supporting teams like the Fighting Irish, Phillies, and Eagles; cooking; golfing; and playing tennis.

Beth is originally from Pittsburgh. Lee and Beth fell in love with Lake Norman while Grace was in school at Davidson, and they eventually made the move to Mooresville in 2023 after spending many years in Connecticut raising their three children. Beth was actively involved in their town and worked for many years at their preschool. When she is not enjoying the beauty of Lake Norman, Beth finds joy in reading, solving puzzles, and cheering on the Steelers. Lee and Beth are both Ordained Deacons in the PC(USA), and Beth is an Ordained Elder as well.

Lee and Beth joined us by Letter of Transfer from Noroton Presbyterian Church in Darien, CT, and they are hosted by Gary and Jenny Vidmer.

Brandi was born and raised in Huntersville. After college, she moved to New York City where she met John and stayed for a decade. Brandi works in advertising sales. On the weekends, the Green family loves to be at the Farmer's Market or strolling through the Davidson College campus with the two family dogs, Olive and Emerald Green.

John and Brandi are joining us by Letter of Transfer from Roswell Presbyterian Church in Roswell, GA, and they are hosted by Josh and Elyse Stevenson.

Greiner, Diane B.

Greiner, Michael F.

Michael F. Greiner & Diane B. Greiner

Michael and Diane live in Concord. Michael grew up in the Tidewater Virginia area – the son of a naval officer. He is a graduate of Old Dominion University and was raised Catholic until he met Diane and became a Baptist. He is a second generation American on his father's side, and on his mother's side he had three relatives who came over on the Mayflower! Coincidentally, Michael's favorite activity is boating. Diane was born and raised in Norfolk, VA. She and Michael spent 35 years in northern Virginia after they were married, and they moved to North Carolina in 2018. They have three grown children and three grandchildren who all live in this area now as well. Diane spent her former career as a government contractor, but she is currently employed by Bank of America. Her favorite place is Tuscany, Italy.

Michael and Diane are joining us by Letter of Transfer from Ox Hill Baptist Church in Chantilly, VA, and they are hosted by Kevin and Gerry MacKenzie.

Griffin, Polly Winfrey

Polly Winfrey Griffin

Polly lives in Davidson in the Bailey Springs neighborhood. Her family lived in Davidson from 1987-1999. She worked at Davidson College, and her three sons grew up in town and at DCPC where they were each baptized! Polly was ordained an Elder here, and she chaired the Pastor Nominating Committee for DCPC's first Associate Pastor. Her oldest two sons returned here for college, so their connection to Davidson as "hometown" has continued. Polly moved to Hanover, NH, in 1999 and to Princeton, NJ, in 2006. She retired from Princeton University in October 2022 and has now moved back home.

Polly is joining us by Letter of Transfer from Nassau Presbyterian Church in Princeton, NJ, and she is hosted by Joe and Glennette Papovich.

Harms, Matthew David

Mathew David Harms

Mathew lives in Davidson with his wife and lifelong DCPC member, Rae McRae-Harms, and their children Lincoln and Reagan. Mathew is originally from Dixon, IL, a small town outside of Chicago, but he has spent most of his life in the greater Charlotte area. After graduating from UNC-Charlotte, he had several jobs before finding what has been his dream job at Fortiline Waterworks, where he has worked in data analytics and business strategy. In his spare time, Mathew enjoys spending time with his family. He is currently assistant coaching his son's tee-ball team. His other hobbies include hiking, golf, cooking, and spending time outside in the yard.

Mathew joined DCPC by Profession of Faith, and he is hosted by Tyler & Kimberly Ross.

Harrah, Beverly Ann

Harrah, Mark Edward

Mark Edward Harrah & Beverly Ann Harrah

Mark and Beverly live in Mooresville at The Point. They are high school sweethearts who both grew up in Charleston, WV, and they both graduated from West Virginia University. They have three grown children who all graduated from the University of Georgia – and they would just like to point out that the UGA team was national champions for college football for the past two years in a row - don't judge them for their elation! They are over the moon for their one-year-twin granddaughters in Atlanta. And they are obsessed with their dog, Raffi, who gets to go on lots of walks and hikes.

Mark and Beverly moved to Greensboro, NC, from West Virginia in 1986 where Mark created a distribution center, bought a NASCAR team, and now owns a drive line components manufacturing business. While in Greensboro, Beverly enjoyed a career in Interior Design and had a clothing and accessories store. She was involved with church activities, Young Life, tennis, and raising children. In 2001, the Harrahs moved to Mooresville where they have made new friends, enjoy playing tennis, traveling, and planning adventurous trips. Mark also cycles and pilots an aircraft.

Mark and Beverly are joining us by Letter of Transfer from Westminster Presbyterian Church in Greensboro, NC, and they are hosted by Lin and Jeanne Snowa.

She serves on two Novant patient advisory committees that work to improve inpatient options and technology tools. Her hobbies include gardening, music, and watching Crimson Tide football.

Allison grew up in Winston-Salem and Fayetteville, NC. She has worked for the City of Charlotte in a variety of roles that have promoted stronger communities. She loves golf, Peloton, pickleball, organic gardening, and reading.

Bridget and Allison are joining us by Reaffirmation of Faith, and they are hosted by Heather McKee and Jane Campbell.

Henry, Atticus McEachron

Henry, Haven Ingrid

Henry, Shawn Samuelson

Shawn Samuelson Henry, Haven Ingrid Henry, and Atticus McEachron Henry

Shawn, Haven, and Atticus live in Davidson with their husband and father Peter, who is our Pastor—Head of Staff, and their son and brother, Whittier. They moved here from Grosse Pointe, MI, in August of 2019.

Shawn is originally from New England and is a former teacher and librarian with a master's degree in education. Shawn and Peter were married in Charlotte, so she notes that elements of moving here feel like coming home. The Henry family loves the outdoors, and they are enjoying being closer to mountains, beaches, and open spaces.

Haven is a Senior at the Community School of Davidson. Her favorite class is AP Chemistry, but she wants to major in marine biology in college. She participated on the track and field team in her last two high schools and hopes to run track at CSD this year as well. She also enjoys horseback riding and snowboarding.

Atticus is a Senior at Hough High School and has been living in Davidson for about six months after returning from an exchange program in Germany. He works part time at Pizza Hut and has been a tremendous technical help to DCPC during this pandemic. He is looking forward to becoming more involved at DCPC.

Whittier Henry will join DCPC this year in our Confirmation Class.

Shawn, Haven, and Atticus joined us by Letter of Transfer from Grosse Pointe Memorial Church in Grosse Pointe Farms, MI, and are hosted by David and Lynn Batty.

Herrema, Donald James

Herrema, Sheryl Ann

Donald James Herrema & Sheryl Ann Herrema

Don and Sheryl live in Cornelius. They have three adult children: one of whom, Katherine, is currently a sophomore at Davidson College. Don is a native of California, and Sheryl is a native of New Jersey. But they both spent over 25 years in New York City, and they have had recent homes in Vero Beach, FL, and Cape Cod, MA. Don is a long-time financial services senior executive who now serves on Boards and does private investing. He is an Ordained Elder in the PC(USA). He loves traveling, sports, reading, and wine. Sheryl is retired from a career in the fashion industry. She presently enjoys travel, tennis, and horseback riding. She also loves to participate in women's groups and Bible Studies.

Don and Sheryl joined DCPC by Letter of Transfer from Trinity Episcopal Church in Vero Beach, FL, and they are hosted by David and Carol Houle.

Hicks, Ada Neill

Catherine L. Bagwell and Ada Neill Hicks

Catherine and Ada live in Davidson with Catherine's husband and Ada's father, Doug Hicks—current president of Davidson College and clergy member of the Presbytery of Charlotte. The Hicks Family has another member, Noah, who is currently a sophomore at Caltech in Pasadena, CA. They moved to Davidson in 2022 for new jobs at Davidson College. Catherine is a professor in the Psychology Department. Originally from Richmond, VA, Catherine graduated from the University of Richmond and Duke University and then returned to the Univ. of Richmond to teach. Before moving to Davidson, they were at Oxford College of Emory University and Colgate

University. Catherine enjoys travel, cooking, and following kids around to their many activities.

Ada is a Junior at Cannon School. She is involved in cross country, soccer, and musical theatre there. She enjoys being part of our DCPC Youth Group and helping out in our 3rd Grade Sunday School class every week. In January, Ada will be ordained and installed as a Youth Elder on our Session! In her spare time, Ada enjoys travel, baking, reading, and art. She also loves spending time with her family and their two cats.

Catherine and Ada are joining us by Letter of Transfer from First Presbyterian Church in Covington, GA, and they are hosted by Shawn and Whittier Henry.

Hills, Ellen Jacquelyn

Hills, Richard A

Richard A. Hills and Ellen Jacquelyn Hills

Dick and Jackie live at The Pines at Davidson where they recently moved from Highlands, NC. They have a blended family of four adult children and seven grandchildren. Dick is a “cradle Presbyterian” originally from Georgia and is a Davidson College grad. He has a law degree from Emory University and is now retired from practicing law for 40 years in and around Atlanta. In retirement in Highlands he was an officer on the boards of both the Highlands Community Child Development Center and the Literacy Council of Highlands. He is a Presbyterian Elder. His interests include travel, cooking, reading, and photography.

Jackie grew up in Virginia and North Carolina. She is a Salem College grad who has taught elementary school and then owned a gift and art business. She had two showrooms in the Atlanta Gift Mart and also produced folk art shows in Highlands, NC. She was President of Mountain Garden Club in Highlands and is currently a member of the Davidson Garden Club. Her other interests include travel, cooking, reading, arts and crafts, gardening, and auditing classes at Davidson College.

Dick and Jackie joined us by Letter of Transfer from First Presbyterian Church of Highlands in Highlands, NC, and are hosted by Scott and Pris Woodmansee.

Hilse, David

Hilse, Lisa

David & Lisa Hilse

David and Lisa live in Davidson and have two adult sons, Eric and Benjamin. David was raised in Cape Elizabeth, ME, and attended the UCC Church where he was a member of the Youth Group throughout high school. He worked the bulk of his career for Ahold Delhaize, a Dutch grocery retail company (in ME and NC), and recently retired in March of 2020. To keep busy, he enjoys woodworking, fly fishing, golf, travel, and music.

Lisa was raised in Winchester, MA, and also attended the local UCC church. David and Lisa were married at the UCC church in South Portland, ME, and they were also previous members of Davidson United Methodist Church. Lisa helped start Davidson LifeLine almost 10 years ago and has been involved in Mental Health and Metal Wellness initiatives ever since. Lisa enjoys playing tennis, gardening, reading, and being in the mountains.

David and Lisa joined us by Reaffirmation of Faith, and they are hosted by Jeff and Cambria Nielsen.

Hogan, James Michael

Hogan, Lisa Shawn

James Michael Hogan and Lisa Shawn Hogan

Mike was born and raised in Rapid City, SD. He attended the University of Wisconsin, where he obtained his BA, MA, and PhD in Communication Arts and American History. Following a long and distinguished academic career that included teaching stints at the University of Virginia, Indiana University, and Penn State, he and Lisa moved to Davidson College for a three-year visiting appointment in 2016. Mike has published eight books and more than 70 scholarly articles and reviews. He serves as director of the Voices of Democracy, a popular educational website featuring texts and scholarly studies of great speeches and debates in American history. At Davidson, he works with the Director of the Writing Program to develop civic learning objectives in Writing 101, and he serves as a consultant to the Deliberative Citizenship Initiative. Mike is an avid golfer and fisherman, and he also enjoys cooking, working out at the gym, and hiking in the mountains with his German Shepherd Dog, Maya. He is a life-long dog lover, having raised and trained German Shepherd Dogs since he was young.

Lisa was born near Champaign, Illinois. She pursued her education at Eastern Illinois University before earning a PhD in Communication and Women's Studies at Indiana University. She taught briefly at Eastern Illinois University before marrying Mike and moving on to Penn State in 2000. At Penn State, she taught courses in Public Speaking, Persuasion, and Women's Studies; and she published scholarly essays on Elizabeth Cady Stanton and other early women's rights activists. Since coming to Davidson, Lisa has taught yoga at the YMCA, Gotta Yoga in Cornelius, and other venues, and she has pursued more advanced training in Prenatal Yoga, Children's Yoga, and other more specialized areas as part of her certification from the Asheville Yoga Center. Lisa is an avid reader, and loves film documentaries, especially those set in the late 19th century. She also enjoys baking and tending to her herb garden. She too is a big dog lover.

Mike and Lisa joined us by Letter of Transfer from Faith United Church of Christ in State College, PA, and they are hosted by Wayne and Margie Utley.

Hoke, David Fred
Hoke, Julia Renfrow

David Fred Hoke & Julia Renfrow Hoke

David and Julia live in Davidson, where they have lived since January of this year. In the words of Southern writer Ferrol Sams, they were “raised right,” as Presbyterians, of course – Julia in Greensboro, NC, and David in Mooresville, NC. David is a graduate of Davidson College and Wake Forest Law School. Julia is a graduate of UNC-Chapel Hill and Wake Forest Law School. Their work after college took them to Raleigh, NC, where they met in the Attorney General’s Office. They married as best friends at First Presbyterian Church in Greensboro in 1994, but they decided their first church as husband and wife should be in a different denomination. So, for a while they delighted in being members and youth advisors at Raleigh Moravian Church. Their daughter, Emilie (also a Davidson Grad), was baptized Moravian. David and Julia later joined White Memorial Presbyterian Church, where they connected with elementary youth through teaching, music leadership, and positions of Christian Education. While there, Emilie was confirmed Presbyterian. David is fully retired from service for the State of North Carolina, and Julia, who also retired from the State, serves as Associate General Counsel for Davidson College. Together, they enjoy playing tennis, travelling, hiking our NC mountains and coast, and always laughing and dancing! They are looking forward to a new community of friends at DCPC and honoring God through worship, service, and fellowship.

David and Julia are joining us by Letter of Transfer from White Memorial Presbyterian Church in Raleigh, NC, and they are hosted by Steedman and Cissi Lyles.

Howard, Becky
Howard, John S

John S. Howard & Becky Howard

John and Becky live in Huntersville. John is originally from Pensacola, FL, and moved to North Carolina in 2019 from St. Louis, MO, where he and Becky raised their three children. John currently works with Novant Health physician network and previously worked as a professor of literature and philosophy and was also a healthcare attorney. John enjoys golf, boating, theater, traveling, reading, and he remains a fan of the St. Louis Blues and Cardinals; plus, he has recently become a fan of the Charlotte Hornets. John has volunteered with organizations to promote MS care for patients and their families.

Becky previously worked in children's ministry and is currently a part-time preschool teacher at Community in Christ preschool. Becky grew up and spent most of her life in Missouri in the St. Louis metropolitan area, but she has fully embraced a more Southern lifestyle in Huntersville. She enjoys walks around the beautiful Lake Norman area, spending time with her children, reading, theater, and Hornets basketball. Becky previously worked with various church coalitions in the St. Louis area and helped organize intergenerational mission trips for youth and adults.

John and Becky joined us by Letter of Transfer from Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Manchester, MO, and they are hosted by Matt Merrell and Holt Hathaway.

Howiler, Marnie Jude

Robbin Ann Isaac and Marnie Jude Howiler

Robbie is a former member of DCPC and is happy to be returning! She and Marnie currently live in Cornelius but have been in the Davidson/Cornelius area for 14 years. Robbie is a graduate of NC State University with a BS in mechanical engineering and has over 25 years of experience designing power plants. She enjoys running, tennis, reading, hanging out with Marnie, and pre-Covid was playing on our DCPC Holey Infield softball team after a 16-year break from softball. She is also active with the Jeff Gordan Children's Foundation to raise money for childhood cancer research.

Marnie is a 16-year-old high school Junior. She enjoys singing and hanging out with friends. She is the stage manager for her high school theater productions and would like to be an interior designer one day. Lately, you can find her hanging out with her new puppy, Reese.

Robbie and Marnie joined us by Letter of Transfer from Davidson United Methodist Church in Davidson, NC, and they are hosted by Trish Jones.

Jensen, Kelly Anthony

Kelly Anthony Jensen

Kelly lives in Mooresville with his wife, DCPC member Marla McMillan, who joined our church in late 2024. They raised five children who mostly live on the West Coast. Kelly was raised Catholic in Oregon, and work transferred him to the Carolinas. He attended UNC Grad School and has lived and worked in New Jersey and Philadelphia, PA. Marla's father was a Presbyterian minister, so it felt natural for them to participate in the Presbyterian church in Philly. Kelly notes that he feels very comfortable at DCPC and feels that the time is right to join. He has already been involved in the Friday Men's Group and in the Holland-Jubilee Sunday School Class, and he has made many friends through his involvement with those groups. In his free time, Kelly loves to golf, run, travel, and work in the garden.

Kelly is joining us by Reaffirmation of Faith, and he is hosted by John Hurst.

Jewell, David Gregory (Greg)

Jewell, Kathleen Caputo

David Gregory Jewell (Greg) & Kathleen Caputo Jewell (Kathy)

Greg and Kathy live in Mooresville, and Kathy is the daughter of DCPC members, Chuck and Barbara Caputo! They were married in 2025 and are proud of their blended family as they enjoy watching their young adult children build their lives and celebrate their successes. Their children are spread across California, Texas, Virginia, North Carolina, and Switzerland. Greg is originally from Maryland and relocated to the Huntersville area in 2004 to raise his sons. They were active in Boy Scouts, and he enjoyed many memorable years of adventure and service as a Scout leader. Exploring our country's national parks has always been one of his greatest passions. After a long career in sales with AT&T, he now has his sights set on retirement. In his free time, Greg enjoys paddle boarding and other lake activities and helping Kathy throw a great party. He is delighted to join the DCPC community and looks forward to the friendships and opportunities ahead.

Kathy recently moved to this area from Northern Virginia to be closer to family and feels fortunate to have met Greg here. Chuck and Barbara introduced them to DCPC, and they are thrilled to be joining this welcoming church community. Kathy is a Realtor with RE/MAX and truly enjoys helping people find the perfect place to call home. Her favorite hobby is playing mahjong, and she especially treasures the new friendships she has made through the game. Greg and Kathy also enjoy spending time on the lake together, listening to live music, travelling, and gathering family and friends around a full dinner table.

Greg & Kathy are joining us by Reaffirmation of Faith, and they are hosted by Chip and Karen

Joe was born and raised in Grand Rapids, MI, where he was confirmed at East Congregational Church. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan and Wake Forest University and is still a huge Wolverines fan! Joe is a CPA who works as a fractional CFO, helping small companies in various industries. In his spare time, he loves to play golf and pickleball and is a fitness enthusiast. He also loves travelling and spending time with family - especially hiking in the mountains.

Joe is joining us by Reaffirmation of Faith, and he is hosted by longtime family friend, Jane McLean.

Johnston, Martha Elizabeth

Martha Elizabeth Johnston

Martha lives in Davidson with her husband, Mark McDonald, in the St. Albans Neighborhood. She is a retired attorney who was born in Davidson, grew up here, was baptized at DCPC, and was confirmed here in 1961. Her parents were longtime DCPC members, Frontis W. Johnston and Lucy Carrie Johnston, who were married at DCPC in 1936! Martha was married to Mark here in 1973, and their daughter Kate was married here in 2014. Martha and Mark lived and worked in Philadelphia for the last 35 years. They moved to Davidson in May 2023 to be closer to their daughter and three granddaughters as well as Martha's sister, longtime DCPC member Tish Kimbrough. So far, they have enjoyed settling into their new home, seeing family, and getting reacquainted with Davidson – welcome home Martha!

Martha is joining us by Letter of Transfer from First United Methodist Church of Germantown in Philadelphia, PA, and she is hosted by Steve and Harriet Kessler.

Johnston, Taylor Lee

Taylor Lee Johnston

Taylor lives in Davidson with his wife, Lisa, and their children Colette, Margot, and Dermot, in the McConnell neighborhood – where they have been since August 2020. She has also taught French, English, and English as a Second Language in MD, NC, and OH. Her first son was born in North Carolina and the second one, Jon, was born in Ohio. She belonged to Presbyterian churches where she lived, taught Sunday School to children and adults, and was president of Presbyterian Women. Her husband and older son died in 2017, and that is when she moved to The Pines. Carol is both an Ordained Elder and Deacon in the PC(USA).

Carol joined us by Letter of Transfer from First Presbyterian Church in Statesville, NC, and she is hosted by Susan Manning.

Martin, Dorothy McAulay

Martin, James Grubbs

James Grubbs Martin & Dorothy McAulay Martin

Jim and Dottie live on Lake Norman in Mooresville, NC, and Jim is the brother of longtime DCPC member, Neal Martin. Jim was born in Savannah, GA, one of four sons of Rev. Arthur M. Martin and Mary Grubbs Martin. Jim is a Davidson College graduate from 1957, and he earned a Ph. D in Chemistry from Princeton in 1960. He returned to Davidson College and was a faculty member from 1960-1972. A precinct politician, he was Mecklenburg County Commissioner from 1966-1972, U.S. Congressman from 1973-1984, and Governor of North Carolina from 1985-1993. Post governorship, he was Vice President for Research at Carolinas Medical Center from 1993-2000. Jim is an ordained Elder and Deacon in the PC(USA). Jim is also a published author of an award-winning book called Revelation Through Science, a book written for the educated non-scientist who may be troubled by apparent conflicts between science and religion.

Jim & Dottie have been married since 1957, when they wed at Dottie's family church – Eastminster Presbyterian. They raised three children together in the Washington, D.C. area. When Jim became Governor of NC, First Lady Dottie became engaged in policy matters important among families – particularly substance, child, and spousal abuses. She is celebrated for leading the movement to plant wildflower presentations along Interstate highways. Dottie is also a Life Trustee of her alma mater, Queens University in Charlotte, NC.

Jim & Dottie joined DCPC by Letter of Transfer from Covenant Presbyterian Church in Charlotte, NC.

McAlpine, Alli

Alli McAlpine

Alli lives in Concord, and she is engaged to be married here at DCPC in January 2027! She is originally from the Washington, D.C. area. She attended Virginia Tech where she was on the dance team, and she met her fiancé, Dax, there while he was playing football. After graduation, they moved to Charlotte for Dax's job as a pit crew member for NASCAR. Alli is a Real Estate agent and absolutely loves helping friends and contacts in the area find their dream home. Alli and Dax love hanging out with their Pomeranian, Kash, and Alli is so excited to join DCPC!

Alli is joining us by Reaffirmation of Faith, and she is hosted by Peri Beatty.

McBride, Grace Carolyn

Barrett Roy Britt

Barrett is a Sophomore at Davidson College who is originally from Creedmoor, NC. At Davidson, Barrett is planning to major in Economics and minor in History. He is also interested in many sports, such as Formula One, the NFL, and more. He is a former athlete and continues to play golf, tennis, basketball, and football. He has a passion for working on cars and is self-taught. He has attended multiple churches, multiple denominations, wherever his family was attending at the time. Joining DCPC will be his first personal, independent choice to become a member of a church, and he is very eager to become a part of our community of faith.

Barrett joined DCPC by Reaffirmation of Faith and is hosted by Scott and Crissie Abell.

Grace Carolyn McBride

Gracie is a Junior at Davidson College, where she is majoring in Communications, and she is originally from Gainesville, GA. She currently rides for the Davidson Equestrian Team and has been involved with horses in some capacity, primarily as a rider, her entire life. She showed Western for the better part of seven years and enjoyed every second of it. For two years at Davidson, she pivoted from horses to run track for Davidson's Track & Field Team. She has always connected with animals and wants to continue her involvement in equestrian for the rest of her life. She also loves her cat named Truffle and enjoys taking silly cat photos. DCPC reminds her of her home church, and she has felt very welcome and comfortable within our congregation. She is happy to become a member of our community of faith.

Gracie joined DCPC as an Affiliate Member, and her home church is First Presbyterian Church in Gainesville, GA. Gracie is hosted by Scott and Crissie Abell.

Ritchie, Allie Catherine

Ritchie, Joel Frank

Joel Frank Ritchie & Allie Catherine Ritchie

Joel and Cathy live in Cornelius in the Bailey's Glen neighborhood. Joel is a native Charlottean and is a lifelong member of St. Mark's Lutheran Church. He has always been very involved in various church activities. Joel and Cathy met at St. Mark's when they were both 15, and they have been married for 47 years. They are moving their membership to DCPC from Grace Lutheran in Boone, NC, where they most recently lived, but they remain Associate Members of St. Mark's. Joel is retired after 34 years with the Charlotte-Mecklenburg School System, where he was an elementary teacher, an elementary and middle school Assistant Principal, and an elementary, middle, and high school Principal. He also reorganized the school district into seven areas and served as an area superintendent in two of those districts. Joel enjoys playing golf, woodworking, driving his Corvette, spending time with his children and grandchildren – especially at their mountain cabin in Valle Crucis, and gardening.

Cathy was born and spent her early childhood in Fayetteville, NC. She moved to Charlotte in junior high school, and Charlotte has been her home ever since. She and Joel moved to Cornelius two years ago to be closer to their children and grandchildren, and they have been enjoying life at Bailey's Glen. Also, Davidson College is near and dear to her heart. Her two brothers, a niece, nephew, and a great-nephew are all DC grads – and another great-nephew is currently attending Davidson!

Joel and Cathy are joining us by Letter of Transfer from Grace Lutheran Church in Boone, NC, and they are hosted by Mike & Li Hogan.

Robinson, Ryan Daniel
Robinson, Sarah Davenport Noble

Ryan Daniel Robinson & Sarah Davenport Noble Robinson

Ryan and Davenport live in Davidson with their children, Caroline and Hank. The Robinsons have been married for over 10 years, and in addition to their children, their family also consists of a dog named Buck who is almost two years old. Ryan and Davenport are both local to the area – Ryan grew up in Lincolnton and Davenport grew up in Charlotte. Ryan is a graduate of UNC-Chapel Hill and has remained the ultimate Carolina fan! Alternatively, Davenport graduated from NC State University but has also learned to love the Tarheels (miracles do happen – but, Go, Wolfpack!). Ryan currently works at Inmar in healthcare sales, and Davenport works at Lowe's Corporate in brand marketing.

For fun, they love to spend time attending Caroline's and Hank's sporting events. Caroline is a gymnast and ballerina, and Hank is a T-ball and basketball player – Ryan is his head coach. They also enjoy playing tennis each week as a family as well as spending time with family and friends. The Robinsons are avid Panthers fans – they have season tickets and are hoping for a better season next year!

Ryan and Davenport are joining us by Reaffirmation of Faith, and they are hosted by Tyler & Kimberly Ross.

Thomas Davidson Russell (Tom)

Tom lives in Huntersville with his wife, DCPC member Barbara Russell! They moved here from Bloomfield Hills, MI, where they lived for 35 years. Tom grew up in Bedford, PA, and earned degrees in mechanical engineering from Penn State and Caltech. Tom and Barbara met in Ann Arbor, MI, while both getting MBAs from the University of Michigan. They have been married for 46 years and have three children – two in California and one in Sydney, Australia. They also have five wonderful grandchildren ranging in age from one to nine years old.

Tom spent the majority of his career in the automotive industry, working for Ford, GE, and Lear Corporation, among others. He wrapped up his career as a founding partner of a consulting firm that specializes in composite materials. At First Presbyterian in Birmingham, MI, Tom was the Head Usher, a tutor at a local elementary school, and he installed the system and trained volunteers to live stream services – which he also did for seven other local churches. At DCPC, he is a member of the Friday Morning Men's Group, the Worship Technology Team, and he tutors at Blythe Elementary School.

Tom is joining us by Reaffirmation of Faith, and he is hosted by his wife, Barbara – an expert host on our Membership Committee!

Rymer, John Michael

Rymer, Mary Covington

John Michael Rymer & Mary Covington Rymer

John and Mary live in Davidson in the River Ridge neighborhood. They met in Reidsville, NC, and married in 1985. They have lived in Carmel, IN, and spent two years living in Hilton Head, SC, before moving here in 2023 to be closer to family. Their three grown sons live in Concord, Charlotte, and Indianapolis with their families. John is originally from Spartanburg, SC, and graduated from UNC-Greensboro in 1979 with a BA in Urban Geography. He was employed by Duke Power from 1980 to 2006. Then, he worked for MISO in Carmel, IN, from 2006 to 2021 where he retired as the Manager of Technical Training. In his spare time, John enjoys hiking, swimming in their pool, and being outdoors. John is an Ordained Elder in the PC(USA).

Mary is a 4th generation native Charlottean. She received her BA in psychology from Guilford College and worked as a preschool teacher in the Charlotte area for many years. Retired now, Mary stays busy working part-time for a friend who owns a wholesale business creating and supplying historic folk toys to museums and historic sites across the U.S. In her spare time, Mary enjoys hiking, kayaking, and biking. She is avid reader, a published writer, and is currently learning embroidery. Church is an important part of her background; she has served as a Stephen Minister and Leader and has enjoyed being in the choir at previous churches. She and John are excited to meet new friends at DCPC!

John and Mary are joining us by Letter of Transfer from Orchard Park Presbyterian Church in Indianapolis, IN, and they are hosted by Bob & Laurie O'Connor.

Saravia, Gwenn Graham

Saravia, Hector George

Hector George Saravia & Gwenn Graham Saravia

Hector and GG live in Charlotte. They have four grown children and 10 grandchildren! They raised their family in the small town of Carrollton, GA, where they lived for 35 years. In retirement, they moved to Chandler, AZ. Their children now live in Alabama, North Carolina, California, and Idaho. Hector retired from teaching at the University of West Georgia in Psychology and Economics. He used to be an avid cyclist and owned a bike shop. More recently, he refurbished residential properties. GG says that besides reading, watching good movies, and doing water aerobics, her favorite hobby is travelling – to see their families, exploring Europe and other countries as well as visiting National Parks.

Hector and GG are joining us by Letter of Transfer from University Presbyterian Church in Austin, TX, and they are hosted by Al and Alice Sudduth.

Mike and Davena are joining us by Reaffirmation of Faith, and they are hosted by Jason and Becca Ridenhour.

Scott, Laurie

Laurie Scott

Laurie lives in Cornelius with her husband, The Rev. Steve Scott. She was born in Texas to a Baptist family and immersed deeply into all aspects of church life and service. She graduated from Baylor University and then married a Presbyterian minister and discovered that she was really a Presbyterian all along! She has been a happy Presbyterian ever since. Laura and Steve's life's work has been a tour of the southeastern United States serving churches and doing graduate work in Kentucky, Florida, Tennessee, South Carolina, Georgia, and North Carolina. They have two grown children – a daughter, Elizabeth, a therapist who lives with her husband in Maryland; and a son, Will, who is also a Presbyterian minister who serves a co-pastorate with his wife, Katie, in Pennsylvania. The Scotts also have three grandchildren. Now retired, the Scotts chose Davidson because they have always had a soft spot for this area since their son graduated from Davidson College. They find themselves in the "Granwich" generation with grandchildren in the Pittsburgh area and an ageing parent in Memphis, TN. Living in this area allows them to be available in both directions, and they find themselves frequently on the road. Laurie's interests include travel, reading, walking, cooking, and spending time with family. She looks forward to being part of the community at DCPC after having felt so welcomed into this church family for almost three years!

Laurie is joining us by Letter of Transfer from First Presbyterian Church in Dalton, GA, and she is hosted by Janet Webb.

Mark David Stevens & Caroline Smith Stevens

Mark and Caroline live in Cornelius, where they have been since 2008. They met at Amherst College in Massachusetts, and they have three grown children and three grandchildren. Mark grew up in Quakertown, PA. He was a municipal bond trader on Wall Street, opened a brokerage firm, and moved to Atlanta to open a new office in 1989 where he began residential home building. He has taught youth Sunday School, sung in an acapella men's group, been president of the Peninsula Community Foundation for three years, and is currently a beekeeper! Mark enjoys skiing, tennis, golf, and associated orthopedic procedures (LOL!).

Caroline grew up in Williamstown, MA, and met Mark when singing in an acapella group in college. Now retired, she has worked in ad agencies in Boston and New York; she has a Master of Education degree in School Psychology; she has worked as a designer for residential home building businesses; and then she bought (with Mark) Oneliance, LLC, a commercial construction cleaning company, which is still run by Mark and their son, Kelso.

Mark and Caroline are joining us by Reaffirmation of Faith, and they are hosted by Cecil and Jennie Clifton.

Swan, Mary Ann Hook

Mary Ann Hook Swan

Mary Ann lives in Davidson. Originally from Cincinnati, OH, Mary Ann's career as an attorney has allowed her to travel and live in numerous cities including Columbus, OH; Chicago, IL; Washington, D.C.; and Bergen, Norway. She also spent two decades in rural northern Wisconsin where she raised two children, golden retrievers, some kittens, a few horses, several llamas, and an occasional 4-H hog. Her life in WI was full of balancing and nourishing a family, growing a career, pitching in for the community, and enjoying many easy friendships. She moved to Davidson for the warmer winters and because her sister and independent 90-year-old parents reside close by in Cornelius. Her interests, in addition to recruiting her adult children to the South, include hiking, running, lake time, reading, Y-classes, Davidson Basketball, enjoying Charlotte music, spending time and reconnecting with family, and FOOD. At DCPC, she has already joined PW Circle 7, she is a Room in the Inn volunteer, and she has engaged in other service opportunities which are filling her cup and allowing her to give back to the community frequently and in quiet ways.

Mary Ann is joining us by Reaffirmation of Faith, and she is hosted by Beth Christenbury and Jan Tevepaugh.

Talbert, Allison Pettman

Talbert, Reginald M.

Reginald M. Talbert & Allison Pittman Talbert

Reggie and Allison live in Cornelius. Reggie is a native Charlottean, a former mortgage banker, and now a part-time healthcare consultant. Reggie and Allison have three grown sons who are all living in NC, and they have one granddaughter who is two years old and was born on the Fourth of July (their little Miss America!). Allison is originally from Beaufort, NC. She is an RN who graduated from Atlantic Christian College and is now a healthcare compliance officer with Novant. She started her career at Duke University Medical Center and met Reggie while in Durham. They married on Valentine's Day in 1987. In their spare time, both enjoy travelling and have a goal of hiking all of our national parks!

Reggie and Allison are joining us by Letter of Transfer from Storyhill Church in Davidson, NC, and they are hosted by John Hurst and Julie Alexander.

Tate, John Garren
Tate, Lori Krimminger

John Garren Tate and Lori Krimminger Tate

John and Lori live in Cornelius with their two children, Graydon and Margot who are twins. John grew up in Cornelius and is an engineer. He is also a saxophone player who loves water sports, especially water skiing, and he has a passion for classic cars. Lori grew up in Concord, NC, and is a freelance writer, editor, and blogger. She loves exercise, reading, music, and helping others.

John and Lori joined us by Letter of Transfer from Davidson United Methodist Church in Davidson, NC, and they are hosted by Jon and Anne Arms.

Thomas, Holly Lowdon

Holly Lowdon Thomas

Holly grew up in St. Louis, MO, but has lived in the South since college. She has lived in Cornelius for the last 16 years. She has a grown daughter, Emily, who works in Charlotte as a daycare teacher. Holly recently started a new job at Davidson College as a Project Manager. She loves current events, reading, travelling, dogs (to a fault—she says!), and old movies.

Holly is joining us by Reaffirmation of Faith, and she is hosted by Mary Thornberry.

Thurman, Matthew David

Thurman, Rebecca Jo

Matthew David Thurman & Rebecca Jo Thurman

Matt and Becky live in Huntersville with their children, Harper and Sammie. Becky grew up in Ann Arbor, MI, and went to school at Kent State University, where she played field hockey. She lived and worked in Detroit for several years before moving to Chicago, where she met Matt and where Harper was born. She started her career in event planning and is now a project manager at Red Hat. She misses the variety of amazing restaurants in a big city but is glad to be in warmer weather and closer to family. Sammie completed their family in 2021 and keeps them busy!

Matt grew up near Knoxville, TN, and studied Music & Arts Administration at Middle Tennessee State University and Florida State University. He grew up in the Disciple of Christ church with deep family roots in the same church for over 100 years! After leaving grad school, he moved to Chicago and lived and worked all over the city.

He sang with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra Chorus for 11 years and had the privilege of singing in numerous venues including Millennium Park, Ravinia, and Carnegie Hall. He is glad to be back home in the South but misses big city food on a daily basis.

Matt and Becky are joining us by Reaffirmation of Faith and are hosted by Chris & Rosie Honeycutt.

Tingelstad, Catherine Jane

Catherine Jane Tingelstad

Catherine lives in Huntersville in the Tanners Creek neighborhood, where she has been for little over a year. Toole, Derek J.

Toole, Erica N.

Derek J. Toole & Erica N. Toole

Derek and Erica moved from Pennsylvania to this area during 2019, and they now live in Huntersville with their son, Donovan. Derek works for Wells Fargo and Erica works for the Social Security Administration. They enjoy travelling and spending time and taking walks with their two Foxhounds, Luna and Skye. They are also very active with Donovan's travel baseball schedule. Erica is an Ordained Deacon in the PC(USA).

Derek and Erica are joining us by Letter of Transfer from Trinity Presbyterian Church in Dallas, PA, and they are hosted by Steven and Lauren Billings.

Trahey, Erin

Trahey, Tom

Tom Trahey & Arabella Malone-Trahey, and Erin Trahey

Tom, Arabella, and Erin live in Davidson, where they have lived since February of 2020. Arabella is a retired orthodontist who is originally from Birmingham, AL. Her mother, Mitzi Green Malone, was organist for over 30 years at First Presbyterian Church in Concord. Her dad, Dr. Hugh Malone, was in the Class of 1956 at Davidson College.

Arabella's brother, John, was in the Davidson Class of 1985. Tom and Arabella met at Davidson where they were both pre-med, Tom played football, and Arabella was a cheerleader! After graduating from Davidson in 1983, she attended UNC Dental and Orthodontic Programs. She and Tom were married at First Presbyterian of Concord in 1984, and in Concord they raised their daughters, Erin and Tara. Arabella is an Ordained Elder in the Presbyterian Church.

Tom is originally from Midlothian, IL. He was recruited to Davidson in 1976 to play football and has been in North Carolina ever since. He went to Wake Forest for medical school and trained in Internal Medicine and Cardiology at Duke. He recently retired after 31 years as a cardiologist where his last 10 years were as the Chief Clinical Officer for Novant Health. Arabella and Tom like to hike, all types of exercise, bird watching, and all things "Wildcat!"

Erin was born and raised in Concord, NC. After graduating from Davidson College in 2013, she went on to receive a Master's in History at the University of St. Andrews in Scotland and a PhD in History at the University of Cambridge in England. She is a historian of early America and the Caribbean (18th Century), and she currently teaches at Yale University. In New Haven, she has enjoyed volunteering with New Haven Reads – an organization which helps children with reading difficulties to achieve their academic goals. Erin is engaged to Sean, a Scottish physicist, and they plan to get married within the next two years. She loves reading, hiking, running, cycling, and has been a lifetime equestrian. Davidson holds a special place in her heart, and she looks forward to worshipping here in person.

Arabella and Erin joined us by Letter of Transfer from First Presbyterian Church in Concord, NC, and Tom joined us by Reaffirmation of Faith. Tom and Arabella are hosted by Dave and Margo Wehrung, and Erin is hosted by Li Hogan.

Tucker, Jessika

Jessika Tucker

Jessika lives in Davidson with her husband, and they both have family in the area. She is originally from Houston, TX, and came to North Carolina after a few years in Columbus, OH. She and her husband love hiking, taking long walks through Davidson, and they love the Lake Norman area in general. Jessika is the Executive Director for Angels & Sparrows Community Table & Resource Center. The affirming and inclusive values of DCPC are especially important to both of them.

Jessika joined us by Reaffirmation of Faith, and she is hosted by Will and Holly Frisbie.

Ursitti, Jacquelyn C

Jacquelyn C. Ursitti

Jackie lives in Huntersville with her husband, Dick. She was married to her High School sweetheart for 35 years and lived in Mahwah, NJ. She has five grown children with him. In 1990, her husband died, and in 1993 she was remarried to Dick Ursitti, a Catholic who resided in Pasadena, CA. He had six children with his first wife which makes for a very large, blended family!

They are expecting their ninth great grandchild very soon, and their tenth in June. The Ursittis moved from California to Florida in 2009, and then they moved to North Carolina last year. Jackie is an Ordained Elder in the PC(USA). Jackie enjoys reading and keeping in touch with extended family, which takes up a lot of her time.

Jackie joined us by Letter of Transfer from Church of the Palms in Sarasota, FL, and she is hosted by Lucile Shaw.

Venter, Martha Reynolds

Robert Alan Mills & Martha Reynolds Venter

Rob and Martha live in Cornelius, and they have five grown children and five grandchildren between them. They have been committed partners for over a decade, after each of them lost their beloved spouses to cancer. Rob was born in Fairfield, CT, and was raised in New Jersey. He holds college and graduate degrees from Northwestern University. Rob's past hobbies included skydiving, sports car racing, and motorcycling. His current hobby centers on the complete restoration of a 1952 Chevy Truck. Rob is a Stephen Minister, an Ordained Elder and Deacon in the PC(USA), and he is actively involved with a veteran's group in Mooresville.

Martha was born in Lancaster, PA, and was raised in the Episcopal church (even though her mother was a Mennonite). She graduated from Penn State with a BA in French and from Middlebury College with an MA. Martha taught French and Spanish for 44 years. Her hobbies include tennis, choir, steel pan band, reading, cooking, and gardening. She volunteers for the Exchange Club, and she enjoys taking classes with DavidsonLearns.

Wheeldon, Elaina

Wheeldon, Eric

Eric & Elaina Wheeldon

Eric and Elaina live in Mooresville with their daughter, Mia. They are self-proclaimed mutts as they have lived in a few places – Chicago, Seattle, Davidson, and Boston. They returned to this area last year, because they found their “home” here in North Carolina. They are baptized and confirmed Catholics. They have been together since right out of college and have grown up together. Eric works in private equity, and Elaina works in big data. As a family, they always find time to see friends, take walks, and go on travel adventures. Eric is a foodie, so they are always up for a new restaurant or recipe. They are excited to find a community here at DCPC where they can share their faith, talent, and family.

Eric and Elaina joined us by Reaffirmation of Faith, and they are hosted by Donny and Kaylor Kaemba.

White, Kathy

White, Richard

Richard & Kathy White

Richard and Kathy live in Davidson. They moved here from Vermont in 2024 at the behest of their daughter, Heather, an attorney (Wake Forest Law grad) who lives in Huntersville. They also have a son, Christopher, a teacher and sailing coach at Tabor Academy in Massachusetts. They have four grandchildren, three of whom who have or are attending the Woodlawn School in Davidson. Richard and Kathy are both graduates of UNC-Chapel Hill. They were married right after Richard attended Officer Candidate School, and Richard then spent three years in the Navy – ultimately becoming the Executive Officer on the USS Havre (PCE 877). After the Navy, Richard attended Cornell Law School and practiced law in Vermont for about 10 years before working for a local independent bank based in Derby, VT. He was President and CEO of that bank for the rest of his career. After retirement, he and Kathy moved to their summer home on Cape Cod , where Richard’s family had been going for generations. Richard enjoys fly-fishing as well as many other outdoor activities along with Kathy such as cross-country skiing, walking, and biking – activities they acquired while living in rural Vermont.

Kathy was born in Washington, DC, but moved to Memphis, TN, when she was 12. She attended Memphis State for two years before transferring to UNC-CH and eventually meeting Richard. After the Navy and moving to Vermont, Kathy became involved with the kids’ educations – working as a volunteer in areas of art readiness and literacy before teaching high school English and Creative Writing. Along the way, Kathy served as Chair of the Governor’s Institutes of Vermont, a board member of the Preservation Trust of Vermont, and was the Governor’s appointee to the Vermont Arts Council. In addition to the outdoor activities Kathy loves to do with Richard, she also loves singing, and has sung in many church choirs including a children’s choir at the National Cathedral in Washington. On the Cape they both enjoy sailing and walking around their little town. They also enjoy travelling to see their children: Heather in China (once), Christopher in Thailand (5 times while Christopher was in the Peace Corps), and a wonderful retirement trip to New Zealand.

Richard and Kathy are joining us by Reaffirmation of Faith, and they are hosted by Tom and Susan Clanton

White, Keaven G.

White, Monica M.

Keaven G. White & Monica M. White

Keaven and Monica live in River Run in Davidson. They have been married for 38 years and have two grown children and a one-year-old grandson. Keaven has been retired for almost four years from being an executive with Wells Fargo Bank, where he led a large revenue generating team. He is an avid sports fan, golfer, and pickleball player – still holding on to his competitiveness. Keaven enjoys family time, trips, and good food and wine.

Monica is originally from St. Louis, MO, where she grew up Catholic but then attended many different denominations as she explored her faith. Monica is a retired psychologist, having worked most recently at Davidson College, who enjoys working out, pickleball, playing board games, traveling, line dancing, and volunteering.

Keaven and Monica are joining us by Reaffirmation of Faith, and they are hosted by Dave and Lyn Dodillet.
