“The Servant King”

Revelation 1:4b-8; John 18:33-37

This Sunday (Christ the King/Reign of Christ) marks the end of the Christian liturgical year. We will explore how Jesus redefines both the nature of power and leadership and discover that he is a very different kind of monarch. This has tremendous implications for all facets of our lives (individual, family, work, community, economic, political)—for those who continue to follow his example today.
