

DCPC This Sunday

October 14, 2018

Mark 10:17-31

It's stewardship season at DCPC, and the lectionary Gospel text tells the story of Jesus inviting a rich man to follow him in a life of discipleship, but first Jesus tells him to sell everything he owns and to give it to the poor. What does this radical encounter between Jesus and the rich man have to teach us about stewardship? We'll explore together what it means to be faithful and generous stewards of all God has given us.

The congregation will celebrate the Sacrament of Baptism with Noah Grey Stevenson, born June 1, 2018, son of Josh and Elyse Stevenson. We welcome the Rev. Whitney Bayer who will be baptizing Noah Stevenson today. She is an associate pastor at South Mecklenburg Presbyterian Church and more importantly, Noah's aunt.
