Yoga for Well-Being

Grades 3-8: Tuesdays 3:30-4:15 p.m. Sept 10-Oct 15

This is a fun and creative class for young yogis! This 6-week session will exercise our bodies, our breath, and our minds to help expand confidence, strength, and balance through flow and movement. We will explore how breathing and moving connect to create calm and relaxed energy.

Led by Certified Yoga Instructor, Kristen Fontana

Cost: $75

Theatre: Where the Wild Things Are

Grades K-2: Tuesdays 3:30-4:15 p.m. Sept 10-Oct 15

Come join in the beloved tale of Max and his Monsters as you act, sing, and dance your way through this classic children's story. This fun-filled camp will be taught by Mrs. Shay. Students will play theatre games, explore characters, and create their own props and sets, culminating in a performance for family and friends at pick-up during the last class.

Led by SA Art Instructor, Mrs. Chelby Shay

Cost: $75

Over to side 2:

Theatre: Fractured Fairy Tales

Grades 3-5: Thursdays 3:30-4:15 p.m. Sept 12-Oct 17

Explore our favorite fairy tales as students dissect the traditional stories and script their own play with combinations of characters and plot twists that are fun and endearing. All students will participate in script writing and prop construction, and they will have a role in the final production. A culminating performance for family and friends will take place at pick-up during the last class.

Led by SA Art Instructor, Mrs. Chelby Shay
