We are continuing to accept in-person registration for the 1st Annual Workers' Compensation-Premium Fraud Workshop at the Sheraton Madison Hotel on Nov. 16, 2021. Many expert speakers, including Wisconsin Commissioner of Insurance Mark Afable and Attorney General Josh Kaul, are ready to share insights on the subject.

We understand that you may be hesitant to sign up, but rest assured, your safety is our number one priority. The workshop team is closely following the proper COVID-19 safety guidelines. Event seating will be properly spaced and hand sanitizer stations at the ready. We are taking every precaution we can to create a healthy and safe environment for you to learn.

Can't make it in person? Sign up to receive a recording of the speakers post-event.

Premium fraud has a huge financial impact on the insurance industry. Staggering amounts of money are lost when companies are not paying accurate premiums. More valuable information for prosecutors, insurance industry experts, and law enforcement will be offered at the workshop. Check out the workshop agenda for a listing of the day's sessions and panel discussions.

The event is co-hosted by the National Insurance Crime Bureau (NICB) and Construction Business Group (CBG). Please contact us with any questions or concerns. We hope to see you there!
