

Join us for the March 21 Presbytery Gathering

THRIVING during CHANGE

Every person and every church is experiencing transition in some way right now. So what can we do to lead God's people well? How might we prepare them-- and ourselves--to experiment and move forward toward God's good future?

Leading us in this conversation on March 21st will be the Rev. Dr. Tassie Green. Tassie is a transitional ministry specialist who serves as team lead of MidAmerica/Lincoln Trails Synods' "Art of Transitional Ministry", which trains Transitional Ministers for the PC(USA). She has served congregations from 80-4000 members, most recently for two years at First Pres Evanston as Interim Senior Pastor. She has previously held Bridge Pastor, interim Associate, & Interim Solo in 8 other transitional roles and worked for the Presbytery of Chicago as a trainer and coach, plus served large congregations in Hinsdale, Indianapolis, and Philly as family minister. Tassie loves infusing creativity, joy, and Jesus' hope into worship services and uses a positive, asset-based approach to help congregations discover God's good future for them.

Tassie's vision statement is, "Helping make Jesus real in people's lives, beginning with our own family."
